

DONAHEY FINED; MADE COURT WARD

ONE DEAD, ONE INJURED IN WHEELING BLAZE

GOVERNOR'S SON IS ASSESSED $100 FOR
RUNAWAY WITH GIRL

Secretary to Executive Pays
Hal's Fine—Girl Put
Under Restrictions

Zanesville, April 9.—Hal Donahey, seventeen-year-old son of Governor Vic Donahey, was fined $100 and made a ward of the juvenile court here until he reaches the age of twenty-one years here today for his part in the disappearance of Lillian Vogel, Zanesville girl, Sunday.

James Huffman, the Governor's executive clerk, paid Hal's fine. Lillian Vogel was ordered to return to school and was placed on strict probation. She and girl friends in the court room bid Hal goodbye, wished him good luck and expressed herself as sorry it all happened.

"I am grieved over the episode and hope the public will be fair in its judgment," Governor Donahey said this afternoon, when told of the action taken by the court.

Zanesville, O., April 9.—Scenes rivaling those which took place during the famous Howard Chandler Christy divorce trial in the same courtroom several years ago, were enacted in the local common pleas court room today when the trial of young Hal Donahey son of Governor, and Mrs. A. V. Donahey, of Columbus, was arraigned with Lillian Vogel.

Mrs. Donahey, Hal, the Vogel girl and "Jim" Huffman, Zanesville man who is Governor Donahey's executive clerk, were in court when the hearing began at 9:40. Attorney A. A. George, representing Mrs. Lida Vogel, mother of Lillian; Attorney C. A. Maxwell, representing Hal Donahey and Prosecutor Clarence Crossland, representing the state, constituted the legal lineup. Probate Judge Clarence Graham, the only Democrat office holder in the county and boyhood and schoolyard pal of "Jim" Huffman, is the presiding judge.

The courtroom, the courthouse corridors and the Esplanade outside the big stone building were literally packed with curious humanity and Zanesville received its baptism of photography from the army of "war" correspondents here to represent various press associations and newspapers of the larger cities of the state, notably Cleveland and Columbus.

When court was called to order the charge against Lillian Vogel was read—Incorrigibility and truancy from school. To these she entered no plea, not being asked to. The charge against Donahey as read in the complaint is "inducing Lillian Vogel to leave home and secrete herself in Columbus," which translated, means contributing to the girl's incorrigibility or delinquency, providing she is proved to be incorrigible or delinquent.

A sensational rumor was circulated just prior to the opening of court to the effect that Attorney A. A. George, representing Mrs. Vogel, Lillian's mother, will demand that Lillian submit to a medical examination to determine the extent of Hal Donahey's offense against her, if any. The court will decide whether this is necessary in the event the demand for such an examination is made by Attorney George.

Another and even more sensational rumor was to the effect that a medical examination had already been made and that the physicians report would be submitted at the session of the court today.

Mrs. Donahey, wife of the governor and Ohio's first lady, appeared with and tried when she entered the courtroom. Hal was composed but Lillian Vogel was plainly nervous. Florence Keaton and James Harmon, companions of Hal Donahey and the Vogel girl in their auto ride to Newark and return Sunday evening were grilled separately by Judge Graham yesterday evening and did not appear as witnesses in today's proceedings. Both the Keaton girl and Harmon told similar stories and nothing except what has been extensively printed was divulged.

The confession of young Donahey in Columbus yesterday and the finding of the girl in that city was not a surprise locally for no credence was given here to Donahey's denials.

ELLINGSON GIRL IS FOUND INSANE

San Francisco, April 9.—Dorothy Elingsson, accused matricide, was found insane by the jury sitting in her sanity hearing here this afternoon. The decision is expected to save the girl from a criminal trial and result in her commitment to an institution for the insane.

EXSOLON BURIED

Yorkville, April 9.—Business here suspended for two hours during the funeral of Avery C. Jones, former state representative. A proclamation by Mayor Harry Coss requested suspension of all labor and other activities as a tribute to Mr. Jones.

"Emir" Is Back

EMIR OF KURDISTAN

Truly a man without a country, the self-styled "Emir of Kurdistan," has been returned to this country from England, to which he had been deported. He sailed from New York on a British ship, but the British authorities refused to permit him to land. France also denied him entrance. He is being held for the second time at Ellis Island, New York, until immigration authorities can determine his status. The "Emir" claims he is the nephew of the sheik of Said, a high Eastern potentate.

DONAHEY USES VETO ON TWO BILLS AND APPROVES THIRTEEN

Licensing Of Realty Brokers Is Vetoed By Governor While
Considering List

Columbus, O., April 9.—Governor Donahey again swung his veto today and sent two bills back to the house of their origin without his approval. Thirteen others, however, were approved and signed.

Persons employed by an industrial concern which does not pay premiums into the Ohio workmen's compensation fund will collect damages from the fund in case of injury under the provisions of one of the bills signed today by the governor. The measure bears the title Reban-Kumler. The present law provides that a person may not collect damages unless the employer is insured under the workmen's compensation act.

Bills which would regulate and license real estate brokers and salesmen and which would change the present law granting exemption from civil service to soldiers and red cross nurses of the Spanish and World Wars were vetoed by the governor.

CULP'S PARAMOUR IN ELOPEMENT HAS BEEN DESERTED BY HUBBY

South Bend, Ind., April 9.—While W. W. Culp, former Menonite and Methodist minister, apparently has been taken back into the home which he left several weeks ago to elope to Chicago, Clio Culp seems of a less forgiving nature, and his eloping wife found upon her return that her husband had sold his home and house furnishings at Nappanee, Ind., and departed. She is now residing with her parents on a farm near Nappanee.

After her elopement with her brother-in-law the devout Amish men of Nappanee "un-churched" Dorothy Culp. And now—spiritually, at least—her tragedy appears to be as poignant as that of the minister's wife when she faced starvation with her 10 children.

"My parents shun me," said Dorothy today. "I am no longer allowed to eat at the same table with them or they, too, would find themselves without a church."

"They can't accept anything from me only my services to pay for the care of myself and my two little children. It was because of them that I came home, for it is a greater sin to bring children into the world and not care for them than not to have children. And now I wish I didn't have any."

"Love? I don't believe there is such a thing," she said bitterly. "I don't love any man. I don't think I ever will."

"Why did I elope with the preacher? Because he seemed jolly—seemed like he wanted a good time and didn't care to quarrel. My husband and I fussed continually. There is never any peace between us. But as saying I'd go through hell for the preacher—well, I went a long way on the road, but I'm through with him now. I don't love any man."

HERRIOT BLAMES FORMER ADMINISTRATION FOR ILLS

Lays Financial Chaos at Doors of Old Nationalist Regime
—Published Report Shows Former
Inflation.

Paris, April 9.—Premier Herriot, dramatically shifted responsibility for France's financial chaos from the socialist government to the nationalist party which was in power after the war, when he appeared this afternoon before the chamber of deputies and declared the time had come for frankness and that he would no longer participate in a conspiracy of silence.

"If I am being attacked now," declared Herriot, "it is because I have been too discreet."

He asserted that the national government after the war had borrowed more money than the entire war had cost France.

"France's internal debt is a crushing burden," he continued. "First there is a perpetual debt of one hundred and forty-nine billion francs; secondly, short term loans of thirty seven billion francs; thirdly, a floating debt of ninety one billion francs."

Herriot then read statistics to show that the national government between 1920 and 1924 constantly borrowed from the Bank of France beyond the legal limit.

"I will punctuate this financial bubble," he went on. "The French public has nothing to fear, either now or in the future if the government takes necessary measure."

Paris, April 9.—The government newspaper Quotidien today published a copy of a secret government financial report signed Francois Marsal and dated April 19, 1924 showing that secret inflation had been going on under the Poincare government.

According to the weekly balance of the Bank of France today, the present total of paper francs is 43,100,000,000, or more than two billion over the legal limit.

REPORT OF BABE'S DEATH GREATLY EXAGGERATED DIAMOND IDOL SAYS

Star Will Be Unable To Play In Opening Game He Admits In Washington—Club physician Says Over-Eating
Responsible For Serious Illness

New York, April 9.—Babe Ruth, New York Yankee ball player, collapsed today on reaching New York from the South.

Washington, April 9.—Pale, weak and obviously sick, Babe Ruth arrived in the capital this morning en route to New York, where he will enter a hospital to recuperate from the attack of influenza and indigestion which caused his collapse in Asheville, N. C., Tuesday.

He managed a weak smile when informed that rumors were current that he had died enroute north on the train.

"I'm sick," he said to International News Service. "I'm in agony, but I'm not dead yet. My head hurts and my eyes burn something fierce."

The mighty slugger said there was little chance that he would play in the opening game of the season at New York next Tuesday.

"I'd like to," he explained, "but I don't believe I can make it. Gosh how my head hurts."

Babe did not leave the train in Washington. He stayed in his berth and talked to the International News Service representative through the curtains.

"I've been in bed almost every minute since I got aboard," he said, "and I expect to stay there till we reach New York."

He said he had a good night and

FORMER MAYOR W. F. BRENNAN APPOINTED TO OHIO DRY OFFICE

W. F. Brennan, Dayton, former Xenian, has been appointed Assistant Chief Federal Prohibition officer of Ohio, Michigan and Indiana, it has been announced by Thomas E. Stone, who assumed his duties as Chief Federal Prohibition officer of the district, Wednesday at Cleveland.

Mr. Brennan will fill the place left vacant last week by transfer to the California district of John E. Harper, assistant under Henry A. Dykeman, who resigned April 1.

Mr. Brennan has been for several years assistant chief at Philadelphia. Stone has served as Federal prohibition Director of Ohio, following the suspension of J. E. Russell, now under indictment in an alleged liquor conspiracy. Mr. Brennan was one time mayor of Xenia and later was lecturer for the N. C. R. Dayton for some time. He has always been active in prohibition work.

FORTY ARE LOST IN JAP TYPHOON

Fourteen Fishing Sampans Sunk
During Storm

Tokio, April 9.—Forty were known to be dead, many more were missing and fourteen fishing sampans were sunk as the result of the terrific typhoon which struck Hachijo Island, off the southeast coast of Japan, according to reports received here today. The government has rushed a cruiser to aid the sufferers.

felt better this morning than he did last night but several times he complained of his head hurting and the burning sensation in his eyes. He looked feverish.

Ruth was accompanied by Paul Krichell, of the Yankee staff. Krichell said that when the train reaches New York early this afternoon Ruth will be taken direct to St. Vincent's hospital and put to bed until he recovers completely from the illness which caused his collapse. The train was met here at 7:30 a. m. by a flock of telegrams from New York inquiring about Ruth's condition. Most of them were inspired by rumors that the mighty slugger had expired enroute. The babe was good naturedly interested in them.

"What was it some fellow said about that—oh, yes, 'the rumors or my death are greatly exaggerated,'" he said.

While the doctors attribute his illness to a combined attack of "flu" and indigestion, the babe himself thinks it is caused by "trying to do too much early." He felt so good this spring, he said, that he over did his training under the tropical suns of Florida.

"I went at it too strong," he said. "I'll know better after this. Gee, how my head hurts."

Before leaving the Union station, Babe telegraphed Mrs. Ruth in New York.

"Meet me," said his message. "The report that I am dead is all a lie. Love."

Those accompanying the babe on his trip to New York were at a loss to account for the rumors of his death which had placed it at Lynchburg, Va.

"I can't account for the reports," said Krichell. "Babe was well enough last night and we tried a little pinchole. When we passed through Lynchburg he was sound asleep."

CHILDREN DIE AS AUTO BURNS

Three Lose Lives When Naphtha
Sets Car On Fire

Saginaw, Apr. 9.—Police were investigating today the fire in which three little girls were burned to death when a can of naphtha in the automobile of Lawrence Boyd caught fire while Boyd was taking the children riding. Boyd himself suffered severe burns in an effort to rescue the children. The latter were his daughters, Elaine, 5, and Betty, 4, and Katherine Clements, a neighbor child.

The naphtha is believed to have slopped over on the floor and dripped through to the hot exhaust pipe.

PRISONER ESCAPES

Atlanta, Ga., April 9.—Search was being made throughout Georgia and neighboring states today for Robert A. Schuler, honor farm convict at the United States penitentiary here, who, according to authorities has been missing since yesterday. Schuler sentenced from Columbus, O., on charges of using the mails to defraud, is the first prisoner to escape since John W. Snook, new warden, took over his duties.

NO SUIT FOR CAL.

Washington, April 9.—President Coolidge is carrying his economy ideas rigidly into his Easter program. Recently published stories that the president had practiced economy by buying a $65 Easter suit, were all right, it was said, at the White House, except that the President has spent nothing at all for new Easter toggery. The last suit purchased by the president was six months ago and he was not buying another against next Sunday.

BELIEVE BABY SOLD FOR $100 IS MISSING LILLIAN M'KENZIE

New York Police Make Arrest
—Will Probe Illegal Medical
Ring In Connection

New York, April 9.—"Dr." H. L. Green was under arrest today following his denial that the baby sold to Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Grofe for $100 was the Lillian McKenzie child, missing for the past two years and for whom a nationwide search was made.

Green, who said his real name was Henry Lee Mottard, graduate of the National School of Chiropractic in Chicago, was charged with performing an illegal operation. Green practiced at Kaukauna, Wis., before coming to New York.

Police said information obtained from Green would be investigated to determine if an "illegal medical ring" was in operation.

Detectives were sent to the Greentree farm at Smithtown, L. I., where Green says he has been living. Other arrests may result from the investigation, police said.

Prosecutor A. C. Hart, of Bergen County, N. J., investigated the report that an adopted child of Mrs. F. V. Grofe, of Menomonee, N. J., was the McKenzie baby, kidnapped in front of a department store in August, 1923.

New York police arrested Green after four hours questioning. Green said he turned over a baby to the Grofes, which was born prematurely in his office to a woman living in Connecticut by the name of Mary Sullivan.

This operation, alleged to have been performed on December 8, 1922 is the basis of the charge against Green. Green said the baby sold to the Grofes was seven months older than the missing McKenzie child.

FIRST LADY NOT TO HAVE EASTER HAT

Washington, April 9.—Attention women! Let the Coolidge brand of economy solve the problem of your Easter finery, if you are hard put to it for the where-withal.

Pick your attire for Sunday from stock on hand. It will be perfectly proper; your criterion will be the first lady of the land.

Mrs. Coolidge is making no investment in Easter toggery this year. Her costume will be selected from her present wardrobe, and its nature will depend entirely upon the weather.

Not even a new hat has found its way to the White House.

The president's wife, however, has an extensive array from which to choose. Owing to the rigid and expensive-fashion obligations imposed upon the mistress of the White House, Mrs. Coolidge has a wardrobe that is complete from A to Z.

The blanks are being prepared in the auditor's office preparatory to mailing.

DEAD PATRIARCH WAS CZAR PARTISAN

London, April 9.—The Patriarch Tikhon, whose death was reported from Moscow yesterday, was the first patriarch in 200 years elected by the All-Russian ecclesiastical council, during the regime of Kerensky. He was accused of bitter czarist partisanship in 1917 and 1918 and in open attacks on bolshevism called its followers "robbers, murderers, law breakers."

He was said to have lent assistance to the whites in the civil war.

After his release in 1923, there were many reports in anti-soviet circles that he had been subjected to continued persecution and that his health had been broken down from treatment while he was in jail.

MISSIONARIES ARE HALTED BY BANDITS

Pekin, April 9.—Three Americans of the Methodist missionaries in Pekin were given the fright of their lives, when, as they were motoring toward Pekin, their car was stopped by bandits who were engaged in a fight with government troops sixty miles north-east of this city, according to their story told here today.

After the automobile had been searched for arms, the three Americans were given the password to take them through the bandit lines and were permitted to proceed.

The district attorney's office stated that the Rhodes couple would be brought before a special commission in the near future to be examined as to their sanity.

MEDALS FOR HEROISM
GIVEN EMPLOYEES OF
TELEPHONE COMPANY

Five bronze medals have been awarded to employees of The Ohio Bell Telephone Company for noteworthy public service during 1924, the decorations being awarded by the board of directors and the presence of mind during situations of danger and emergency.

Announcement of the awards was made here Wednesday by H. W. Cleaver, local commercial manager of The Ohio Bell.

Each award was made by the Ohio Bell's Committee of Award, Theodore N. Vail medals. Those receiving the medals are:

William Lobenstein, line foreman, Bridgeport. Resourcefulness and courage in saving human life. He, with a companion, rescued a four-year-old child from an upstairs room of a burning house.

George F. Rolf, lineman, Bridgeport. Resourcefulness and courage in saving human life. He, and a companion, rescued a four-year-old child from an upstairs room of a burning house.

Henry G. Bruhn, foreman, Cleveland. Bravery, initiative and prompt application of first aid in saving human life. A fellow workman accidentally came in contact with 2300 volts of electricity and was near electrocution when Bruhn rescued him.

August R. Fleck, repairman, Upper Sandusky. Courage and prompt action in saving human life. Rescued unconscious fellow workman from telephone pole after latter had come in contact with electricity.

A group medal and a group citation were awarded to four members of the Ohio Bell plant department, Springfield. They are F. E. Ware, Robert R. Robinson, Edward A. Ware and Earl P. Yeazell. The men were returning from work when they saw an automobile collide with a train. They rushed to the scene and before doctors or police had arrived had administered first aid to three wounded boys.

Only five awards were made by the committee for 1924, two less than in 1923.

In making the awards, the committee pointed out that from the earliest days of the Bell system, its employees have been actuated by a sense of responsibility to the public. Manager Cleaver said, "Company records show innumerable instances in which demands made by emergencies for disregard of self, and fidelity to the interests of the public, have been answered in deeds which have been the living embodiment of the Bell system 'Spirit of Service'."

"Few single individuals have done more to make a vital force of this ideal of service than did the late Theodore N. Vail, for many years the president of The American Telephone and Telegraph Company. In his memory gold, silver and bronze medals are awarded annually throughout the system in recognition of some of the more outstanding of these acts of 'noteworthy public service.' The bronze medals are awarded by regional committees appointed by the associated companies of the Bell system and the silver and gold medals by a committee which reviews the editorial awards for this purpose. Each gold medal is accompanied by a cash award of $500 and each silver medal by a cash award of $250.

NEW HOSPITAL IS
"KIDDY" PARADISE

Springfield, Mass., April 9.—A "kiddies" paradise is the new Shrine Hospital, situated at the top of a lovely hill in this city.

Walls beautifully colored with "Mother Goose" rhymes, including "Little Red Riding Hood," "The Three Bears," "Jack and Jill," "The Three Blind Mice," and many others, not forgetting "The Old Lady Who Lived in a Shoe," provide an endless source of delight to the bent and twisted "kiddies" who come to be made straight and beautiful.

The new Shrine Hospital is fully equipped in the most modern manner. The operating room is tiled in pale grey instead of the usual white, because the gray absorbs the light and prevents glare.

The building is a one-story structure. There are no stairs to tax the strength of nurses and attendants. Accommodation is limited to fifty, twenty-five boys and the same number of girls.

The institution is free, no child who can pay being admitted.

FOR TEN YEARS

"World's Greatest Buy"

Everyone Says It—Sales Prove It

It is only as you find the real comparisons for Hudson qualities among the costliest cars that the enormous difference in price is so astonishing.

Today it offers the greatest price advantage and finest quality in Hudson history. Never was this supremacy of value so outstanding. And the greatest Hudson sales on record show how complete is public knowledge of the facts.

Is There Any Reason to Pay More?

Hudson's position as the "World's Greatest Buy" is not merely a new attainment. It is acknowledgment of ten years' refinement of a great car around the famous patented Super-Six principle. No motor design, however costly, has been found to displace this long-time leadership of the exclusive Super-Six.

Its simplicity has always meant a lower selling price than is permitted in complicated types.

And today, economies possible only to the largest production of 6-cylinder closed cars give it value advantages never held by any rival.

All now know that higher price can buy no smoother performance than Hudson's. It cannot buy more brilliant results in acceleration, power or speed. It cannot buy greater reliability or endurance.

No car at or near the price rivals the Hudson Coach in actual proof of value—which is SALES.

What My Neighbor Says

Is of Interest to Xenia Folks.

When one has had the misfortune to suffer from backache, headaches, dizziness, urinary disorders and other kidney ills—and has found relief from all this sickness and suffering, that person's advice is of untold value to friends and neighbors. The following case is only one of many thousands, but it is that of a Xenia resident. Who could ask for a better example?

Leonard Jones, car inspector, Home Ave., says: "Heavy lifting and working in a cramped position brought on backache. I was stiff and lame across my back. After I had worked in a cramped position for a few minutes I could hardly straighten. Doan's Pills rid me of the attack."

SEVERAL YEARS LATER Mr. Jones said: "Doan's Pills cured me of kidney trouble and I have no further need for them."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mr. Jones had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

ANTIOCH INSTRUCTOR ON DAYTON CLUB PROGRAM

Mrs. Charles Putnam, of the Antioch College faculty, gave one of a series of literary programs arranged this season at the Dayton Woman's Club, for members. Wednesday afternoon. She was presented by Mrs. Jane B. Marley chairman of the program committee.

Mrs. Putnam, whose forte is the drama, read from the works of modern American writers of verse, in a graceful manner. Spring, she defined as a recurrence of familiar things rather than a resurrection and for her first group of verses read some of the spontaneous and exquisite lyrics contained in the volume "Rivers by the Sea" by Sara Teasdale, one of the foremost of American moderns and lyricist without a peer.

This group included "April", "The Willow", "Mayday", "To a Castilian Song", "Alchemy", and "Spring in War Time".

America up to the twentieth century, produced no instinctive American poets, declared the speaker, the verse writers at that time being in reality transplanted English poets. In the present century, the younger poets have created a typically new American school, whose principles by mutual consent are, briefly, to use only words in common usage, and exact phrases, avoiding poetic phrases, to recognize free verse, to create new rhythms, to work for distinctness and sharpness and to present clear-cut images. Foremost among the imagists were placed Amy Lowell, "H. D." and John Gould Fletcher.

Lacking in the products of this school is the bubbling spontaneity which marks the Spring lyrics of Sara Teasdale, but Spring is sung, nevertheless, and delightfully, by Carl Sandburg, Edgar Lee Masters, Vachel Lindsey, Robert Frost, Edwin Arlington Robinson, Witter Bynner, Le Gallienne, Eunice Tietjens, Edna St. Vincent Millay and others, from whose works selections were read.

Frequently, in their verses, Spring is employed as a background for the presenting of a story, as in Amy Lowell's "Patterns", "Springtime on the Shore of a Lake", and "Winter Bynner's 'New World', and Dyer's pathetic little dialect poem, "Spring Came Late".

Three elders were elected for three years: Dr. W. A. Galloway, to succeed himself; Mr. Henry Slagle and Mr. George Kaiser, succeeded Mr. O. M. Whittington and Mr. D. B. Watt. Five Deacons were elected three for the regular term of three years: Mr. James Wilson, III, and Mr. Frank McClellan, succeeding themselves; Mr. George P. Tiffany, succeeding Mr. A. V. Petrill. Mr. John McClain was elected to the unexpired term of Mr. George Kaiser, elected elder, Mr. F. L. Smith to the unexpired term of Mr. L. M. Allison, resigned.

Thirty-one members were added to the church last year, making the membership at present 311. The Rev. W. H. Tiltford, pastor, opened the meeting with a devotional talk on Second Timothy, 2:15, "Study to show thyself approved unto God a workman that need not be ashamed." He took for his subject, "The Approval of God" and the idea was emphasized that Church Success or any other, had its final test in the approval of God. "We cannot be successful as a church unless we have God's leadership and work for his approval," he said. The text was suggested as a suitable motto for everyone and the church for the coming church year.

PLAYLET IS WORK OF EX-XENIA TEACHER

The little playlet that is to be presented Thursday evening at the Jean B. Elwell Auditorium of Central High School in the annual "Know Your Schools" program by the pupils of the first, second and third grades of McKinley School is a project of the pupils of Miss Winifred Savage, Xenia, teacher of the first grade in an East Cleveland school.

The plot is original, having been conceived by the pupils of the first grade and worked out under the direction of Miss Savage. The title, "Grandmother's Garden", a May Day story was also selected by the pupils and is of a quaint nature. Trees, fairies, grasshoppers, bees, flowers, caterpillars and other inhabitants of gardens will be represented in the playlet. The fact that Miss Savage is a former teacher in the first grade of Spring Hill School this city adds to the interest that will be manifested in its presentation.

YOUTH

Young Hal Donahey, erring son of the chief executive of the state, seems to have gotten himself into another mess.

The youngster is only seventeen years of age, and a boy of this age who becomes involved in an affair of this nature must suffer a blight that will mar his chances for future happiness.

This condition is enhanced by the fact that he is the Governor's son and for that reason earns considerable more publicity than would be accorded another chap in similar circumstances. Young Donahey and his father seem to have agreed that Hal is a victim of the temptations of owning his own automobile.

The boy is also apparently a victim of the present jazz age but if the scars of his present escapade can be healed, the whole affair may have a scouring effect on him during the character-building age.

INVESTMENTS

The department of commerce reports it is launching an investigation of reports that many mid-west farmers have been mulcted in South American land swindles.

Many are said to have sold their farms to raise funds to purchase acreage in South America of so-called extreme fertility but of actual doubtful existence.

This is an indication that many people do not take advantage of the friendly service of their own banker. Greene County banks are prepared to give advice as to the investments. Certainly they would not have advised that this money be tossed to the winds because of the smooth words of an unscrupulous salesman who would have kept his South American land if it was as promising an investment as he pictured it.

You can't dodge puzzles. If you don't care for cross-words, there are the parking ordinances.—Akrón, Ohio, Beacon-Journal. Or a good railroad time table.

The saxophone may be ousting the bagpipe in Scotland, but it is pretty hard to imagine how justice could be done to "The Campbells Are Coming" with such a tool.—Urbana, Ohio, Democrat. Maybe that would end the Campbells.

Modern version: "High life, personal liberty and the pursuit of bandits."—Akrón, Ohio, Beacon-Journal. Where does personal liberty come in?

That sensational trial in London certainly did murder some reputations for good.—Newark, O., American-Tribune. And that's about all anybody got out of it but expenses.

The Philadelphia man who has a scheme to fight tornadoes with bombs must first catch his tornado.—Urbana, Ohio, Democrat. Maybe he has a scheme to put salt on its tail.

It's just possible that the burglar who stole a Long Beach, California man's wooden leg took that method to evade pursuit.—Marion, Ohio, Star. Maybe the burglar felt he didn't have a leg to stand on.

A lot of folks are down on vaccination because they're not up on it.—Martins Ferry, Ohio, Times. And vaccination is down on a lot of folks and up where it can be seen on others.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

April 8, 1925.

To the Editor:—

When I plead for the Armenian children at Easter time, I ask myself what excuse can anyone have for refusing help in this case. The only one I have yet met is this: "We don't like the Armenians."

But if you were to travel about the world and realize how intensely we are disliked in some parts of the world, your hair would stand on end. Is everyone who is disliked to die? If so, we shall be among the first, I assure you.

It is true that the Armenian race is a very troublesome one. It is always being massacred! It is always in trouble. For 4,000 years the Near East has been the battleground of nations. No other portion of the world's surface has been so drenched with human blood. Millions of lives and billions in property have been sacrificed. Armies and navies have failed. They have brought only desolation and ruin. They have not enriched life. Where there was hatred they have engendered more hatred. Yet there will be no permanent peace until the Near East question is solved.

In the Near East today there is a latent and new force that will prove mightier than all the armies of the past—little children, about a hundred thousand of them, fatherless, motherless, homeless, penniless, but none the less potential leaders of a new Near East. Let us do for them, and for the future of the world, that pitiful little service which at present seems to be all we can do—give our help to those who are trying to collect the scattered families and provide food and clothing for a hundred thousand orphans.

We do not know how far a few loaves and fishes can be made to go. Here is no gigantic, unmanageable problem, like Russia. It is a handful of people for whom I plead, and who know how far the help we send may go? Here are people needing only a little help to make good. Shall we help them? We shall all be happier at Easter if we do.

THE FRIEND FROM HOME

Oh, whether it be Cairo or Paris or in Rome,
There's nothing quite so fair to see
As a friend you've known at home;

A friend who knows your first name
and all your people, too,
Will set your pulses beating as nothing else can do.

If you have ever wandered a thousand miles away,
You've felt that bitter hunger which grips you night and day,
You've overted on grandeur and starved for simpler things,
You're ready for the gladness a familiar brings.

When friends are ever near you, you greet them day by day
And seldom think about them, but when you go away
To walk the streets with strangers your blood will faster race
To see among the people one old familiar face.

'Tis not the snow-capped mountains, 'Tis not the ocean's blue,
'Tis not the tropic palm trees the moon comes silencing through
That holds earth's richest beauty—You'll learn it when you roam—
The traveler's greatest moment is to meet a friend from home.

Mrs. Lee Suffered From All These Troubles, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well

Terre Haute, Indiana.—"I was weak and run-down and in such a nervous condition that I could hardly do my work. I was tired all the time and dizzy, had no appetite and could not sleep. I tried different medicines for a year but they did not help me. Then my husband saw the ad. for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers and had me take it. I regained my strength and never felt better in my life. I completely restored me to health. I had practically no suffering when my baby boy was born and he is very strong and healthy. I know that the Vegetable Compound is the best medicine a woman can take before and after childbirth for health and strength. I would be willing to answer letters from women asking about the Vegetable Compound." Mrs. Wm. J. Lee, Route E, Box 643, Terre Haute, Indiana.

What Pretty Girl Did for Sick Stomach

Miss E. Rich of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I don't know what the cause was, but every few days my stomach would feel all bloated up with gas, my appetite was poor and I felt sick to my stomach—to say nothing of headaches."

"I never thought of using Carter's Little Liver Pills until nothing seemed to help. After using Carter's I felt relieved at once—and now as soon as my stomach 'talks' back I answer with Carter's and have the last word." Recommended and for sale by all drug stores. 25c.

"My Escalloped Oysters: (Note: this recipe happens to answer the request of "Mrs. E. V. N." just received.) Wash one quart of oysters. Butter a medium-sized baking dish and put in a layer of dry crumbs, add a layer of the oysters, sprinkle with a little salt, a little minced celery and a little parsley if you have it, then dot with bits of butter. Repeat these alternate layers till the dish is full. To one quart of oysters I use five cups of crumbs. Pour two cups of rich sweet milk over the contents of the dish, and add a top layer of buttered crumbs. Bake 35 minutes in a hot oven. Serve hot. Contributed by Old Housekeeper."

"How I Whiten Linen: I have two methods, both good. I think there is nothing more shiftless than allowing one's household linen to become yellowed. Perhaps other women might like this information:

Method Number One: Soak the linen in buttermilk for 48 hours, then rinse in clear, cold water, rinse again in water which is luke-warm, and dry in the sun on the grass.

Method Number Two: This is for very badly yellowed linen—discolored either from age or disease. Put it in a solution consisting of one pound of baking soda to one gallon of boiling rain water, let soak off the stove 12 hours, then put it over the fire in the same water and boil for one hour. Have ready the following solution: Chloride of Lime Solution (this may be used on cottons or linens, but it yellows silks and woolsens). Stir two teaspoonfuls of chloride of lime into a pint of water in an earthenware dish and allow it to settle, then pour off the clear portion; add a few drops of vinegar. Immerse the linen in this (after it has soaked as above directed in the soda and rain-water solution) and let it remain in this time

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain. Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 15c and 50c.

Sore Eruptions Formed. Healed by Cuticura.

"My face was affected with pimples that were small and red and scaled over. When I scratched them sore eruptions formed, and sometimes I could not sleep at night on account of the irritation. The trouble lasted about three months. I tried different remedies but they did not help me. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after using four cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment I was completely healed." Today's Talks

RIPENESS

The form and substance of a man stands, sits, sleeps, walks around, dreams, gestures now and then—but mysterious indefinable man himself keeps his secret, and in silence philosophizes on the changes, movements, and questionings of humankind.

It is not well to tap any newly-met mind too far else that subtlety of thought or desire for expression that opens so often at new opportunities or new meetings, might suddenly close its doors and ward off a flow of richness that on ripe occasions might prove a cool spring to the parched throat of the weary traveler.

The fact is that we as individuals and operators in the stuff of eternity are all the time ripening, or else of lives are merely shaping themselves into some sort of dross over which the tramp of feet and busy brain may pass.

The field of flowing gold as the wind fondles the ripened heads of the grain, is a picture of the efforts of life the soil, the seed, the green sprout, the tall grain, the flowering of the ripe gift of the heart of the grain. Then the harvest and endless service—like the influence of a man's life after his material life has been translated into dust.

How many of our great men and women ripen only after their period of strife and stress has ended.

Yet, isn't this the natural way? The stalk withers, after its bloom. But not until that bloom has left beauty and loveliness to perfume all memory of its day upon earth.

Beside me as I write is a special book which I have greatly learned to love. I think of the years of struggle on the part of him who placed in those pages the outpourings of his heart and his lonely spirit.

When the book was published it sold to but a very few fine, appreciative minds. Then the author fell asleep—tired, worn out. Today, after edition in a score of different bindings finds ready sale to great multitudes of readers. I think of the work of this writer as all of ripeness.

I think of the soul of that rare spirit as journeying upon the waves of eternity!

EXPECT DAMAGE CASE WILL BE GIVEN JURY LATE ON THURSDAY

The $5,100 damage case of Mildred Dickerson, former stenographer at Wilbur Wright Field, against the Village of Osborn and the Miami Conservancy District being heard in Common Pleas Court was scheduled to go to the jury late Thursday afternoon.

The defense rested its case at the close of the Thursday morning session and attorneys for the plaintiff called but one witness in rebuttal.

Attorney J. A. Finney opened the argument to the jury in the afternoon when the court re-convened, followed by counsel for the defense.

The verdict may hinge on medical testimony given by Indianapolis doctors and local physicians.

Testimony given by Dr. N. D. Woodward, of Indianapolis, private physician of the Dickerson family, lecturer, and authority on anatomy, tended to substantiate allegations of the plaintiff that she had received abdominal and side injuries when she stepped into a hole in a street in Osborn in 1920.

In refutation of this testimony, defense attorneys called Dr. B. H. Grube and Dr. P. D. Espey, Xenia physicians, who gave their opinion after a physical examination of the plaintiff that her condition had been sub-normal since birth, that she was suffering from "suggestion neurosis," in medical language or extreme nervousness, which magnified her injuries, made her susceptible to outward suggestions, caused insomnia, loss of appetite and headaches.

Dr. W. H. Finley, Xenia physician, was called as the only rebuttal witness by plaintiff attorneys, and upheld the plaintiff's claims upon which the suit is based.

Mildred Dickerson submitted to a medical examination Wednesday afternoon by Dr. R. H. Grube, Dr. P. D. Espey and Dr. W. H. Finley, upon which their testimony Thursday morning was based.

Harry Frahn, mayor of Osborn, was placed on the witness stand Wednesday afternoon by defense counsel, and testified he had jurisdiction over village property, but that he was not informed of an uncovered hole in the sidewalk, although he knew of its existence and had previously closed the opening. Marshal W. A. Schneider, of Osborn, testified he had accidentally stepped into the hole, but was not injured on the occasion.

The plaintiff maintains she did not suffer from her accident until later but that afterward she discovered she had been hurt internally.

LOCAL MINISTER TO ADDRESS MEETING

The Rev William H. Tilford, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, this city, who has been moderator of the Dayton Presbytery for the last six months, will preach the opening sermon of the Spring meeting of Dayton Presbytery at Troy, O., Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

This closes the Rev. Mr. Tilford's term of office and his successor is elected and immediately takes over the work for another six months. Dr. A. C. Messenger is the representative of the local church at this meeting. The sessions will last two days.

Representatives will be elected at this meeting to attend the Summer meeting of the Synod of Ohio and also the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A., which meets in Columbus, O., in May of this year.

COUNTRY CLUB WILL HOLD ELECTION AT MEETING APRIL 17

Stockholders, directors and members of the Xenia Country Club will hold their annual meeting at the club house Friday night, April 17, to elect officers and directors for the ensuing year. The financial statement of the past year will be presented at the meeting, by the secretary.

The meeting is of importance to all members, and all are urged to attend. Whether the local golf club will become a member of the Dayton District Golf Association, will be decided by the new board of directors, it was announced.

It is however, considered highly probable that Xenia will become a member of the association which consists of a majority of the clubs of the Miami Valley, banded together into an organization for friendly competition and association on the golf links.

A number of the local "bugs" are taking advantage of the ideal golf weather to get some spring practice, and several good scores are being reported for the nine holes.

The fairways have been given their first rolling, and with a good stand of grass, the links never looked in better shape for this time of year.

The greens have not yet been opened to members but are rapidly being conditioned for the date of the formal opening which will be set by the new board of directors and officers.

by both Major Kneer and Lieutenant Stewart.

PAST CHANCELLORS WILL MEET TUESDAY

The next meeting of the Past Chancellors' Association of Greene County will be held at Cyclone Lodge, No. 548, K. of P. Jamestown, O., Tuesday evening, April 14. The meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock.

The entertainment committee has been able to obtain Hon. John M. Roser, of Dayton, O., to make the principal address of the evening. All Knights are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

OHIO SOCIETY WILL MEET AT ANTIOCH COLLEGE SATURDAY

The Ohio Section of the Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education will this year be the guest of Antioch College, Yellow Springs, for its Annual Conference, Saturday, April 11. Dean A. A. Potter of Purdue University, president of the society, will open the afternoon session with an address on "The Tendencies in Engineering Education." H. P. Hammond, associate director of investigation of the society will touch on the problems of this phase of its work in a later address.

A picnic luncheon in the historic Antioch Glen, near the yellow spring, is planned for the delegates, at the conference will last from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. Antioch's president, Arthur E. Morgan, and Dean Philip C. Nash, also of Antioch College, who was recently elected vice-president of the Ohio Association of Presidents and Deans, will give addresses of welcome. The other speakers, who represent seven institutions throughout the state will include Professor E. S. Smith, of Cincinnati; Professor W. L. Evans, and Professor Robert Melickjohn, of Ohio State; and Professor Horace B. English of Antioch.

Dean Herman Schneider of the University of Cincinnati and Dean T. M. Focke of the Case School of Applied Science, Cleveland, are among those who will lead discussions following the addresses.

QUIT GETTING UP NIGHTS

A Healthy Bladder Acts During the Day

C. N. Shuman, Republic, Ohio, says: "Before taking Lithiated Buchu (Keller's Formula) I had to get up six or seven times each night. Now I do not get up at all. You may use my name if it would benefit anyone with bladder trouble." Be careful not to take drugs that check the action of the bladder. You may have to continue its use. Lithiated Buchu (Keller's Formula) increases the action during the day. It cleanses the bladder as Epsom Salts do the bowels driving out foreign matter, neutralizing excess acids, thereby relieving the irritation which causes "Getting Up Nights." These tablets cost 2¢ each at all drug stores or Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Locally at Sayre and Hemphill. Adv.

CLAIM IS UPHELD AGAINST COMPANY

A Federal Court decision against the Springfield Railway and Power Company, in a $5,873.24 claim filed by the Miami Conservancy District, Dayton, was issued by U. S. Judge Smith Hickenlooper at Cincinnati, Wednesday.

The claim was filed in 1921 after the road was dismantled and a bridge taken out over the Miami River near Troy, O. The Conservancy District held the defunct railroad liable for the assessment arising from the widening of the river. The company receivers asked release from the conservancy assessment on the grounds that the company was not in operation.

The federal court decision marked a new stride in the final closing of the defunct company's books. Final bankruptcy settlement is now held up pending the settlement of the affairs of the Springfield National Bank.

Services next Sunday, 10:30 a.m. This will be a special Easter service. There will be on display a hand painted resurrection scene 15x22 feet. As one glances at this they behold Joseph's new tomb—the tints of the early morning in the sky and the three crosses in the distance. In the midst of the service the scene changes—the stone is rolled away and the angel appears to announce the risen Christ. The night service will be held at 7:30, when electric lights will be used to bring out the beauty of the painting. Mr. H. C. Fluker is the artist. There will be special music in both services.

The public is invited to come to the little church with the big welcome.

My nerves were good and I did not have any more trouble, could sleep and rest well at night. Motherhood caused the least discomfort I ever experienced and my strength held up good afterwards. RADIO PLANE HEARD BY LISTENERS HERE

Motor trouble developed at the close of the forty-five minute radio program broadcast from an airplane flying from Wilbur Wright Field, Dayton, Wednesday night and brought to a close the broadcasting experiment from a plane in flight after dark.

The trouble forced Major H. V. Kneer, commanding the eighty-eighth observation squadron and Lieutenant Malcom Stewart, radio operator, to land, which was done without mishap.

The radio program, however, was considered a success and was heard by Xenia "listeners-in". It was the first time that the feat of broadcasting had been accomplished at night from a plane and marks another long step forward in mechanical manipulation.

The transmitting plant, installed in a DeHavilland plane, thoroughly equipped for night flying, with searchlights on the wings, parachute flares and signal lights, was taken up to a height of 5,000 feet. A phonograph furnished the music for the entertainment and there were talks

STORY OF ACCUSER OF D. C. STEPHENSON IS TOLD BY MOTHER OF GIRL AT HER BEDSIDE

BY SONIA LEE

Indianapolis, Ind., April 9.—The story of Madge Oberholzer, alleged victim of a man's desire, was told here today at the bedside where the unconscious girl lies dying from slow poison which has been seeping through her veins since she sought death as a way out in Hammond, Indiana, twenty-three days ago.

It was told by a mother who watches and waits, hoping against hope, for the daughter whose doom she has heard from the lips of attending physicians—physicians who have said:

"She cannot live."

The mother, Mathilda Jane Oberholzer, sketches the details of her daughter's leaving home, how she went to attend a "party" at the home of D. C. Stephenson, former Ku Klux Klan leader, and political power in Indiana, who is under indictment for the alleged attack on the girl. And she interrupts her tale, which grows bitter at times, to lay a cool hand on the feverish brow of the girl lying so fretfully beside her.

"It was on a Sunday," the mother says. "Madge went to Stephenson's about nine o'clock after he had called her on the telephone twice during the day and had left a number when he failed to find her in."

The girl failed to return and the mother became anxious. She had never stayed away before. The father was ill and the mother feared to share her worries and anxieties. She called Asa Smith, a young attorney, who tried to calm her and finally came a telegram from Hammond: "Driving through to Chicago. Be home on night train—Madge," it read.

But Madge was not on the train. She was away all that night while the mother made frantic efforts to locate her and the next day, strange men brought her back, unconscious, while the mother was out, mumbled something about "an accident at Muncie," and left.

Since then the girl has had but a few moments of consciousness, according to the mother. She has been able to tell brokenly of the terrible happenings of those days when she was absent. The mother breaks her story to listen to a plaintive cry.

"Mother, mother, dearie," comes faintly from the bed. And the mother in answer, gives caresses with her hand and eyes.

"My daughter told me," she begins again, "before she became unconscious eleven days ago, that just as soon as she got to Stephenson's, she knew she was trapped. She said that she had something to drink and then—I'm not quite clear here—but they were going to take her to Chicago. She thought they were driving through and she pleaded to go home for a hat as an excuse. But they took her right along. When they got to town they bundled her into a compartment and Shorty took the car, presumably to drive through."

"See," the woman pulls back the girl's nightgown, displays the three bruises. "She was a mass of black and blue spots when she was first brought back."

"When they got to Hammond they went to a hotel. There were two rooms and Shorty met them with the car later on. There was more drinking, she told me. Stephenson stood over her while she wrote out the telegram I received and it was then sent to the telegraph office by messenger. One of the men gave her some money to buy a hat and she went out and bought the poison and she took it when she came back to the hotel. They laughed at her when she said she had taken poison. They tried to make her say that she did not. But then she got sick and she went to the telephone to call me but she was so weak she couldn't stand up.

"If she had only let me know. Nothing would have stood in my way and she would have received medical attention immediately. She has so little chance now—even after the blood Marshall, her brother has given her. I wanted to offer mine but his was better."

In the meantime, Stephenson answers the charges with the counter charges of frameup on the part of his enemies in the Klan. He claims that this is merely another desperate effort to eliminate him from Indianapolis and Klan affairs.

But "fals" to the idle chatter is written by Dr. Kingsbury, the attending physician with the statement:

"The girl cannot live. If she should it would upset all medical precedent. The waste content of her blood is more than six times that of normal. There has been no change in her condition in the last few days but she will not live."

BISHOP REESE WILL NOT CONDUCT EASTER SERVICES IN XENIA

Word was received Tuesday from Columbus, that due to an unavoidable and unforeseen change in program, Bishop Theodore Irving Reese, will be unable to officiate at the Easter service of Christ Episcopal Church, this city.

In his stead, the Rev. Maurice Clarke, secretary of religious education for the Episcopal diocese of Southern Ohio will take charge of the services.

Bishop Reese found it necessary to be present at St. Paul's Cathedral, Cincinnati, next Sunday morning, instead of the evening, as had been originally scheduled. For this reason, he cannot come to Xenia.

The Rev. Mr. Clarke, has made a splendid record in religious education circles. Before taking up his present duties he was rector of St. Peter's Church, Delaware. At present, he is also in charge of the work of young people's societies in Southern Ohio.

New Treatment For Varicose Veins and Ulcers

Swollen veins are dangerous and often burst. Sufferers are advised to get a two-ounce, original bottle of Emerald Oil (full strength), at Sohn's Drug Store and Sayre and Hemphill's and start to reduce the veins and burses at once.

Physicians recommend Emerald Oil; it is used in hospital practice and a small bottle will last a long time, because it is very concentrated and a little goes a long way. Apply night and morning with a soft brush as directed until the swelling is reduced to normal.

So marvelously powerful is Emerald Oil that swollen glands and even goitre disappear when used steadily. adv.

SLAYER POMEROY IS SEEKING FREEDOM

Boston, April 4.—Jesse H. Pomeroy, famous life-term prisoner, is making another try for freedom.

After serving forty-nine years in State prison here, entering the prison as a boy of sixteen, the now gray-haired man has appealed to Governor Fuller for executive clemency.

Two score of business and professional men of Massachusetts are backing Pomeroy in his fight for liberty. These men have petitioned the Governor for a public hearing. If the hearing is granted it is planned to have Pomeroy appear, under guard, and tell his story in person.

Although in solitary confinement for forty-one of his forty-nine years, Pomeroy is vigorous and healthy. He has kept in touch with affairs in the outside world and has done much writing.

Pomeroy was convicted of murdering a boy of five in 1874 when he was fourteen years old. He also confessed to slaying a girl, whose ashes were dug from the cellar of the Pomeroy home in South Boston.

Sohn's Drug Store's Great Offer To Chronic Rheumatic Sufferers

Money Back If Allenru Fails To Do You More Good Than Anything You Ever Used

this because I was crippled for years and many times was unable to work, and Allenru made a well, robust, healthy man of me."

"I know because since I cured myself, hundreds have taken Allenru and speedily rid themselves of this agonizing disease."

Allenru is no laggard; it starts right in at once; it gets into the blood, searches out the poisonous uric acid deposit, and in two days starts to drive the concentrated impurities that cause rheumatism, out of the body through the natural channels.

It's marvelous how quickly it acts. Blessed relief often comes in two days—even in cases where the suffering has been most painful all traces have disappeared in a few days.

James H. Allen, of 26 Forbes St., Rochester, N. Y., the discoverer of Allenru, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenru decisively conquers this worst of all diseases.

With this understanding he has instructed Sohn's Drug Store and druggists everywhere to guarantee it in every instance.—Adv.

Yes, perfect every time and it keeps fresh for days for now I use only the new Kitchen-tested Cake Flour!

Don't say you cannot make a cake. It is easy. If you tried and failed—probably your flour was to blame. It takes a special kind of fine, plump wheat—with a tender, pliable gluten—to make good cake flour.

But even the best flour may play tricks—unless it is Kitchen-tested. That is why in our big kitchens we test every single batch of the new Gold Medal Cake Flour. That is why every time you can make such remarkably good cake.

My staff and I bake cakes continuously. From every batch of Gold Medal Cake Flour made. Every cake we make must pass 3 tests. It must be perfect—light, tender, delicious. Every cake must be as good as the one before. Every cake must keep its original freshness 3 whole days.

This new cake flour, madam, Kitchen-tested—to give you a perfect cake every time—one that stays fresh 3 whole days. Try it for your own delight. Just phone your grocer for a package now.

Sincerely, Betty Crocker

The New Good MAXWELL

ONE-CENT STAMP TO DIE APRIL 14 UNDER
NEW ACT OF CONGRESS

The one-cent stamp, dear to the hearts of summer tourists and mail-order houses will die at midnight, April 14 under a death order issued by Congress and signed by President Coolidge.

After that date the gentleman with the green complexion will be only a memory in postal circles. A stamp can take a lot of lickings and still not have to lay off from work, but when Coolidge signed the death warrant for the penny portrait of Franklin, he sent the little fellow to his grave.

The stamp, one of the oldest in circulation, has been used for years in the unimportant business of transferring across the country the rather hackneyed expression, "wish you were here." Its demise came with the decision of Congress to raise rates on this class of postage to help pay the postal employees salary increase bill. The penny stamp died that the mailmen may live and they will carry their routes after April 14 over his canceled body.

The one cent stamp is survived by the old favorite, the pink-complexioned two cent stamp and a new, trick one and one-half cent stamp which will come into common usage April 15. The new stamp will take care of the cent and one-half rate on third class postage, and will be the first fractional stamp in the history of the department.

A portrait of the late President Warren G. Harding will decorate the new stamp. The picture will be the same used on the memorial stamp issued after his death. Postmaster C. S. Frazer is expecting a supply of the new stamps soon.

CAMP KNOX FILM TO BE IN XENIA MAY 19

County Chairman H. D. Smith, in charge of the enrollment campaign in Greene County for the Citizens' Military Training Camp, at Camp Knox, Ky., for this summer, announced Wednesday that he had received word that the motion pictures depicting training activities at the camp, would be sent to Xenia, May 19.

Chairman Smith said the film would be shown at the local theaters when arrangements were completed. The film has been assigned to this district, but Xenia comes last on the list of about eight cities to which the picture will be sent.

Greene County's campaign for applicants is being continued despite the fact that the allotted quota has been over-subscribed by two applicants. Future candidates will be entered at headquarters as alternates.

BRNGING UP FATHER

MICHAEL'S MARRIAGE

By MICHAEL

CHAPTER XI.

Michael pulled the telephone toward him, and put the receiver to his ear as he scanned a column of figures.

"Central 4305," he recited. "No, no! Central four-three-five. Yes, that's it." He forgot the column of figures, as he recalled, with a wry face, Helen Blanton.

"Metropolitan Florist Shop? This is Michael Menlow. I wish to order some flowers."

"Just a moment, Mr. Benbow."

"Menlow, you idiot," Michael thought.

"Wonder if Helen is pressing one of my rose buds pressed between the leaves of a book?" He smiled at the idea.

"This is Michael Menlow," he recited to the florist again. "I want you to send two dozen roses—no, wait, one dozen roses, the largest you have, to Miss Lilah Pharley. No, not Barley. Ph-a-r-l-e-y." He gave the address, and added the injunction: "Please get them to her early this afternoon."

He turned back to his work with satisfaction. Work was easy this morning. The smallest details interested him. By noon he had accomplished as much as he usually did in an entire day.

As he gazed at the pile of completed letters and the otherwise clean desk, he got an idea. When the letters had been signed, he rang for Inglesby.

"I have an important engagement for the afternoon, Ing. I won't be back."

After taking more than usual care in refreshing himself in the washroom, he walked briskly toward his customary luncheon place, but on its threshold he changed his mind and hailed a taxi.

The cab took him to the Studio Arts building. He consulted a directory in the lobby, and then ventured into the ante-room of the studio occupied by Monsieur and Madame estova, Ballroom Dancing.

"I want to brush up on the latest steps," Michael confided to Monsieur Bestova, born neither in Russia nor in France, but in Plainfield, N. J., where he was known as Al Johnson. "I want private lessons. Could you give me the whole afternoon?"

Monsieur Bestova, though hesitant at first, could. He summoned Madame Bestova as partner for Michael.

"I will play, and Madame will point out to you those little intimate intricacies of the dance which are the difference between the correct, ballroom dancer and the un—" Monsieur Bestova was at loss for a term to describe the class of dancers that he meant. He hesitated a moment, then quickly sat down at the piano and began a waltz. Madame Bestova was blonde with eyes disposed to argue cooly, and Monsieur Bestova kept a watchful eye upon the couple.

They kept it up until five o'clock, when Michael asked Madame, ignoring Monsieur: "Have I improved?"

"Most wonderfully," she ventured, without so much as a glance at the jealous Monsieur.

"Should I come again?"

"You have achieved those intricacies which are the difference between the correct, ballroom dancer, and the un—" Monsieur interposed, glancing at Madame pointedly.

Michael, innocent of all that was going on between his two terpsichorean mentors, drew out his purse. "And the fee?"

M. Bestova of Moscow, Paris and Plainfield, N. J., eyed the bill-fold.

"I believe twenty-five dollars will be satisfactory."

Michael bowed formally to Madame as he left.

"Now," he said to himself, as he drew on his gloves, and started feel more at ease on the dance floor. Wonder what Lilah thought of me last night? I was horribly clumsy." He decided to ask her to go to the weekly teadansant at the country club on Saturday afternoon.

He noticed the window of a clothing store as he drove by. He stopped and walked to it. Without inquiring the price, he bought two pairs of white flannel trousers, and a dark coat to go with them, and accompanied these purchases with the acquirement of sport shoes. He had never felt the need of such apparel before.

When he got home he sought out Sally Warbe. "Sally, do you suppose I could have a dinner party here sometime soon? I'll expect you to get some extra help, of course. We'll want to get a butler—I know a good one, and I can have a caterer supply the food. I'll want some music—a violinist or somebody—too, but, of course, you won't attend to that."

The housekeeper looked at him doubtfully. "Do you think it would be proper, Mr. Michael, so soon after your mother's death?"

A shadow settled on Michael's brow. He had forgotten about his mother's death. He had not been to her grave since the funeral. What would she think of him if she knew? And what had Lilah thought of him for going out and being so gay so soon after Mrs. Menlow's passing?

"I suppose you're right, Sally. I must confess, ashamed, that I had not thought of it in that light."

Sally did not comment upon the matter further, but confided that "Mr. Thurber telephoned. He said he tried to get you at the office this afternoon, but couldn't. He says if you're going to be at home this evening he wants to see you, and to call him up and let him know."

Thurber was the family lawyer. He probably had something to take up about the will. "All right, Sally," Michael sat down weakly, his mind upon his mother. (To be continued.)

DONAHEY FINED; MADE COURT WARD

ONE DEAD, ONE INJURED IN WHEELING BLAZE

GOVERNOR'S SON IS ASSESSED $100 FOR RUNAWAY WITH GIRL

Secretary to Executive Pays
Hal's Fine—Girl Put
Under Restrictions

Zanesville, April 9.—Hal Donahey, seventeen-year-old son of Governor Vic Donahey, was fined $100 and made a ward of the Juvenile Court here until he reaches the age of twenty-one years here today for his part in the disappearance of Lillian Vogel, Zanesville girl, Sunday.

James Huffman, the Governor's executive clerk, paid Hal's fine. Lillian Vogel was ordered to return to school and was placed on strict probation. She and girl friends in the court room bid Hal goodbye, wished him good luck and expressed herself as sorry it all happened.

"I am grieved over the episode and hope the public will be fair in its judgment," Governor Donahey said this afternoon, when told of the action taken by the court.

Zanesville, O., April 9.—Scenes rivaling those which took place during the famous Howard Chandler Christy divorce trial in the same courtroom several years ago, were enacted in the local common pleas court today when the trial of young Hal Donahey son of Governor, and Mrs. A. V. Donahey, of Columbus, was arraigned with Lillian Vogel.

Mrs. Donahey, Hal, the Vogel girl and "Jim" Huffman, Zanesville man who is Governor Donahey's executive clerk, were in court when the hearing began at 9:40. Attorney A. A. George, representing Mrs. Lida Vogel, mother of Lillian; Attorney C. A. Maxwell, representing Hal Donahey and Prosecutor Clarence Crossland, representing the state, constituted the legal lineup. Probate Judge Clarence Graham, the only Democrat office holder in the county and boyhood and schoolyard pal of "Jim" Huffman, is the presiding judge.

The courtroom, the courthouse corridors and the Esplanade outside the big stone building were literally packed with curious humanity and Zanesville received its baptism of photography from the army of "war" correspondents here to represent various press associations and newspapers of the larger cities of the state, notably Cleveland and Columbus.

When court was called to order the charge against Lillian Vogel was read—Incorrigibility and truancy from school. To these she entered no plea, not being asked to. The charge against Donahey as read in the complaint is "Inducing Lillian Vogel to leave home and secrete herself in Columbus," which translated, means contributing to the girl's incorrigibility or delinquency, providing she is proved to be incorrigible or delinquent.

A sensational rumor was circulated just prior to the opening of court to the effect that Attorney A. A. George, representing Mrs. Vogel, Lillian's mother, will demand that Lillian submit to a medical examination to determine the extent of Hal Donahey's offense against her, if any. The court will decide whether this is necessary in the event the demand for such an examination is made by Attorney George.

Another and even more sensational rumor was to the effect that a medical examination had already been made and that the physicians report would be submitted at the session of the court today.

Mrs. Donahey, wife of the governor and Ohio's first lady, appeared wan and tired when she entered the courtroom. Hal was composed but Lillian Vogel was plainly nervous.

Florence Keaton and James Harmon, companions of Hal Donahey and the Vogel girl in their auto ride to Newark and return Sunday evening were grilled separately by Judge Graham yesterday evening and did not appear as witnesses in today's proceedings. Both the Keaton girl and Harmon told similar stories and nothing except what has been extensively printed was divulged.

The confession of young Donahey in Columbus yesterday and the finding of the girl in that city was not a surprise locally for no credence was given here to Donahey's denials.

"Emir" Is Back

EMIR OF KURDISTAN

Truly a man without a country, the self-styled "Emir of Kurdistan," has been returned to this country from England, to which he had been deported. He sailed from New York on a British ship, but the British authorities refused to permit him to land. France also denied him entrance. He is being held for the second time at Ellis Island, New York, until immigration authorities can determine his status. The "Emir" claims he is the nephew of the sheik of Said, a high Eastern potentate.

DONAHEY USES VETO ON TWO BILLS AND APPROVES THIRTEEN

Licensing Of Realty Brokers Is Vetted By Governor While
Considering List

Columbus, O., April 9.—Governor Donahey again swung his veto today and sent two bills back to the house of their origin without his approval. Thirteen others, however, were approved and signed.

Persons employed by an industrial concern which does not pay premiums into the Ohio workmen's compensation fund will collect damages from the fund in case of injury under the provisions of one of the bills signed today by the governor. The measure bears the title Rebam-Kumler. The present law provides that a person may not collect damages unless the employer is insured under the workmen's compensation act.

Bills which would regulate and license real estate brokers and salesmen and which would change the present law granting exemption from civil service to soldiers and red cross nurses of the Spanish and World Wars were vetoed by the governor.

CULP'S PARAMOUR IN ELOPEMENT HAS BEEN DESERTED BY HUBBY

South Bend, Ind., April 9.—While W. W. Culp, former Mennonite and Methodist minister, apparently has been taken back into the home which he left several weeks ago to elope to Chicago, Clio Culp seems of a less forgiving nature, and his eloping wife found upon her return that her husband had sold his home and house furnishings at Nappanee, Ind., and departed. She is now residing with her parents on a farm near Nappanee.

After her elopement with her brother-in-law the devout Amish men of Nappanee "unchurched" Dorothy Culp. And now—spiritually, at least—her tragedy appears to be as poignant as that of the minister's wife when she faced starvation with her 10 children.

"My parents shun me," said Dorothy today. "I am no longer allowed to eat at the same table with them or they, too, would find themselves without a church."

"They can't accept anything from me only my services to pay for the care of myself and my two little children. It was because of them that I came home, for it is a greater sin to bring children into the world and not care for them than to have children. And now I wish I didn't have any."

"Love? I don't believe there is such a thing," she said bitterly.

"I don't love any man. I don't think I ever will."

"Why did I elope with the preacher? Because he seemed jolly—seemed like he wanted a good time and didn't care to quarrel. My husband and I fussed continually. There is never any peace between us. But as for saying I'd go through hell for the preacher—well, I went a long way on the road, but I'm through with him now. I don't love any man."

HERRIOT BLAMES FORMER ADMINISTRATION FOR ILLS

Lays Financial Chaos at Doors of Old Nationalist Regime
—Published Report Shows Former
Inflation.

Paris, April 9.—Premier Herriot, dramatically shifted responsibility for France's financial chaos from the socialist government to the national party which was in power after the war, when he appeared this afternoon before the chamber of deputies and declared the time had come for frankness and that he would no longer participate in a conspiracy of silence.

"If I am being attacked now," declared Herriot, "it is because I have been too discreet."

He asserted that the national government after the war had borrowed more money than the entire war had cost France.

"France's internal debt is a crushing burden," he continued. "First there is a perpetual debt of one hundred and forty-nine billion francs; secondly short term loans of thirty seven billion francs; thirdly, a floating debt of ninety one billion francs."

Herriot then read statistics to show that the national government between 1920 and 1924 constantly borrowed from the Bank of France beyond the legal limit.

"I will punctuate this financial bubble," he went on. "The French public has nothing to fear, either now or in the future if the government takes necessary measure."

Paris, April 9.—The government newspaper Quotidien today published a copy of a secret government financial report signed Francois Marsal and dated April 19, 1924 showing that secret inflation had been going on under the Poincare government.

According to the weekly balance of the Bank of France today, the present total of paper francs is 43,100,000,000, or more than two billion over the legal limit.

NO SUIT FOR CAL

Washington, April 9.—President Coolidge is carrying his economy ideas rigidly into his Easter program.

Recently published stories that the president had practiced economy by buying a $65 Easter suit, were all right, it was said, at the White House, except that the President has spent nothing at all for new Easter toggery. The last suit purchased by the president was six months ago and he was not buying another against next Sunday.

BELIEVE BABY SOLD FOR $100 IS MISSING LILLIAN M'KENZIE

New York Police Make Arrest
—Will Probe Illegal Medical
Ring In Connection

New York, April 9.—"Dr." H. L. Green was under arrest today following his denial that the baby sold to Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Grofe for $100 was the Lillian McKenzie child, missing for the past two years and for whom a nationwide search was made.

Green, who said his real name was Henry Lee Mottard, graduate of the National School of Chiropractic in Chicago, was charged with performing an illegal operation. Green practiced at Kaukauna, Wis., before coming to New York.

Police said information obtained from Green would be investigated to determine if an "illegal medical ring" was in operation.

Detectors were sent to the Green-tree farm at Smithtown, L.I., where Green says he has been living. Other arrests may result from the investigation police said.

Prosecutor A. C. Hart, of Bergen County, N. J., investigated the report that an adopted child of Mrs. F. V. Grofe, of Mesumore, N. J., was the McKenzie baby, kidnapped in front of a department store in August, 1923.

New York police arrested Green after four hours questioning. Green said he turned over a baby to the Grofes, which was born prematurely in his office to a woman living in Connecticut by the name of Mary Sullivan.

This operation, alleged to have been performed on December 8, 1922 is the basis of the charge against Green. Green said the baby sold to the Grofes was seven months older than the missing McKenzie child.

FIRST LADY NOT TO HAVE EASTER HAT

Washington, April 9.—Attention women!

Let the Coolidge brand of economy solve the problem of your Easter finery, if you are hard put to it for the wherewithal.

Pick your attire for Sunday from stock on hand. It will be perfectly proper; your criterion will be the first lady of the land.

Mrs. Coolidge is making no investment in Easter toggery this year. Her costume will be selected from her present wardrobe, and its nature will depend entirely upon the weather.

Not even a new hat has found its way to the White House.

The president's wife, however, has an extensive array from which to choose. Owing to the rigid—and expensive—fashion obligations imposed upon the mistress of the White House, Mrs. Coolidge has a wardrobe that is complete from A to Z.

TAX RETURN BLANKS TO BE MAILED FRIDAY

Personal property tax return blanks will be mailed out Friday from the County Auditor's Office to approximately 8,500 property owners in the county. All returns will be dated as of April 13, tax listing day, and must be either in the hands of the various county assessors or in the mails by May 1, to obtain the $100 exemption.

Returns may be sent either to the county auditor's office direct, or be handed to any one of the twenty-five assessors in the county. The returns will be passed on to the county assessor, James Curlett.

The blanks are being prepared in the auditor's office preparatory to mailing.

ATHLETE DIES

Rugby, England, April 9.—Lieutenant Colonel Cecil Nickalls, famous polo player and member of the English team, which contested against the American players in 1902, was found dead at Stanford today, a revolver beside his body. Police believed he had committed suicide.

Orleans, France, April 9.—Captain Jacques Sadoul, accused of high treason and desertion from the French army to the soviet forces in Russia, was acquitted by a court martial here today. The vote was four to three.

Crime Mystery

MISS BEATRICE DONNELLY
JAMES A. O'MAHONEY

While on a day's outing at Greenwich, Conn., James A. Mahoney, of New York City, shot and killed his sweetheart, Miss Beatrice Donnelly, as they walked along a lonely road. He surrendered to the police, but refused to tell why he killed the girl, declaring he would go to his death with the motive unknown.

FIRST STOCK OF NEW DODGE BROTHERS IS SNAPPED ON ISSUE

First Block Brings Premium Of Three Points—Total Issue
Amounts to 850,000 Shares

New York, April 9.—The first offering of stocks of the Dodge Brothers Incorporated, by Dillon, Read and Company, an issue of 850,000 shares of seven per cent no par preference stock, was snapped up today and the books were quickly closed.

Bankers affiliated with Dillon, Read and Company, estimated that subscriptions for the preferred stock might reach a total of $500,000,000 against actual offering 850,000 shares at par, involving the sum of $85,000,000.

The new stocks were listed on the New York Stock Exchange prior to their public sale and the first block of 300 shares sold at 103, bringing a premium of three points over the offering price. The stock was freely supplied and settled down to 100 3/4 in the first half hour of trading.

A total of 160,000,000 bonds and stocks, the largest piece of single industrial financing in American history and exceeding by $10,000,000 the last previous transaction, the purchase of Chile copper Company by Anaconda will find their way to the investment market as a result of the purchase of Dodge Brothers by the New York bankers.

EIGHT KURDISTAN REBELS EXECUTED

Constantinople, April 9.—Eight Kurdistan rebels were executed today before the Mosque at Diar Bekir, the war office announced.

Complete mobilization of Turkish federal troops was ordered today because of the seriousness of the rebellion. The Turks are pressing the rebels hard in every section but the rebellion is widespread.

The rebels lost 300 in a battle near Sivas and in retreat the survivors burned the villages of Bourgas and El Mandin.

SAILORS DROWN

Amsterdam, April 9.—Six sailors were drowned today when the Dutch steamer Jonge Catherine collided with the British steamer Clan Monrow, in the Wellingen canal. The Dutch steamer sank quickly after the collision.

ALL NIGHT PARKING

Pomeroy, April 9.—Council here has ruled that all-night parking of cars will be allowed in Main Street. This action was taken, it was stated, because all the public garages close so early that, many times, traveling men cannot find places to leave their machines at night.

LEGION CAMPAIGN

Defiance, April 9.—On the first day of the members' campaign of Herbert E. Anderson post, American Legion, eight members were signed. The campaign will continue through April, with the losing side banqueting the winners.

BUSINESS BLOCK IS WIPED OUT AS BLAZE STARTS IN FACTORY

Barker Killed, Customer
Injured—Loss Estimated at $75,000

Wheeling, W. Va., April 9.—One man dead, a woman seriously injured and $75,000 loss are the results of a fire that wiped out a city block here last night.

The fire started at 11 o'clock in an explosion in a candy plant at the end of the Market Street creek bridge and quickly swept through the block to 20th St.

The dead man is: James Scopelites, a barber, who was found pinned under a barber chair in the shop in which he worked. He was rushed to the hospital dying this morning.

Mrs. Mike Comas, who was in the barber shop when the explosion occurred, was injured and ran from the structure to the street where she collapsed.

Eight business establishments were burned out in the block.

DEAD PATRIARCH WAS CZAR PARTISAN

London, April 9.—The Patriarch Tikhon, whose death was reported from Moscow yesterday, was the first patriarch in 200 years elected by the All-Russian ecclesiastical council, during the regime of Kerensky. He was accused of bitter czarist partisanship in 1917 and 1918 and in open attacks on bolshevism called its followers "robbers, murderers, law breakers."

He was said to have lent assistance to the whites in the civil war.

After his release in 1923, there were many reports in anti-soviet circles that he had been subjected to continued persecution and that his health had been broken down from treatment while he was in jail.

MISSIONARIES ARE HALTED BY BANDITS

Pekin, April 9.—Three Americans of the Methodist missionaries in Pekin were given the fright of their lives, when, as they were motoring toward Pekin, their car was stopped by bandits who were engaged in a fight with government troops sixty miles north-east of this city, according to their story told here today.

After the automobile had been searched for arms, the three Americans were given the password to take them through the bandit lines and were permitted to proceed.

NEW HOSPITAL IS "KIDDY" PARADISE

Springfield, Mass., April 9.—A "kiddies" paradise is the new Shrine Hospital, situated at the top of a lovely hill in this city. Walls beautifully colored with "Mother Goose" rhymes, including "Little Red Riding Hood," "The Three Bears," "Jack and Jill," "The Three Blind Mice," and many others, not forgetting "The Old Lady Who Lived in a Shoe," provide an endless source of delight to the bent and twisted "kiddies" who come to be made straight and beautiful. The new Shrine Hospital is fully equipped in the most modern manner. The operating room is tiled in pale grey instead of the usual white because the gray absorbs the light and prevents glare. The building is a one-story structure. There are no stairs to tax the strength of nurses and attendants. Accommodation is limited to fifty, twenty-five boys and the same number of girls. The institution is free, no child who can pay being admitted.

FOR TEN YEARS "World's Greatest Buy"

Everyone Says It—Sales Prove It

It is only as you find the real comparisons for Hudson qualities among the costliest cars that the enormous difference in price is so astonishing.

Today it offers the greatest price advantage and finest quality in Hudson history. Never was this supremacy of value so outstanding. And the greatest Hudson sales on record show how complete is public knowledge of the facts.

Is There Any Reason to Pay More?

Hudson's position as the "World's Greatest Buy" is not merely a new attainment. It is acknowledgment of ten years' refinement of a great car around the famous patented Super-Six principle. No motor design, however costly, has been found to displace this long-time leadership of the exclusive Super-Six.

Its simplicity has always meant a lower selling price than is permitted in complicated types.

And today, economies possible only to the largest production of 6-cylinder closed cars give it value advantages never held by any rival.

All now know that higher price can buy no smoother performance than Hudson's. It cannot buy more brilliant results in acceleration, power or speed. It cannot buy greater reliability or endurance.

No car at or near the price rivals the Hudson Coach in actual proof of value—which is SALES.

ANTIOCH INSTRUCTOR ON DAYTON CLUB PROGRAM

Mrs. Charles Putnam, of the Antioch College faculty, gave one of a series of literary programs arranged this season at the Dayton Woman's Club, for members, Wednesday afternoon. She was presented by Mrs. Jane B. Marley chairman of the program committee.

Mrs. Putnam, whose forte is the drama, read from the works of modern American writers of verse, in a gracious manner. Spring, she defined as a recurrence of similar things rather than a resurrection, and for her first group of verses read some of the spontaneous and exquisite lyrics contained in the volume "Rivers by the Sea" by Sara Teasdale, one of the foremost of American moderns and lyricists without a peer.

This group included "April," "The Willow," "Mayday," "To a Castilian Song," "Alchemy," and "Spring in War Time."

America up to the twentieth century, produced no instinctive American poets, declared the speaker, the verse writers at that time being in reality transplanted English poets. In the present century, the younger poets have created a typically new American school, whose principles by mutual consent are brief, to use only words in common usage, and exact phrases, avoiding poetic phrases to recognize free verse, create new rhymes, to work for distinctness and sharpness and to present clear-cut images. Foremost among the imagists were placed Amy Lowell, "H. D." and John Gould Fletcher.

Lacking in the products of this school is the bubbling spontaneity which marks the Spring lyrics of Sara Teasdale, but Spring is sung, nevertheless, and delightfully, by Carl Sandburg, Edgar Lee Masters, Vachel Lindsey, Robert Frost, Edwin Arlington Robinson, Witter Bynner, Le Gallienne, Eunice Tietjens, Edna St. Vincent Millay and others, from whose works selections were read.

Frequently in their verses, Spring is employed as a background for the presenting of a story, as in Amy Lowell's "Patterns," "Springtime on the Shore of a Lake," from Witter Bynner's "New World," and David's pathetic little dialect poem, "Spring Came Late."

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH DINNER AND ANNUAL MEETING

The Eighty-fourth annual congregational meeting and dinner of the First Presbyterian Church, was held Wednesday evening. The dinner was served promptly at 6:30 o'clock the young women of the church assisting the Ladies Aid Society, of which Mrs. George P. Tiffany is president.

Mr. R. D. Williamson was elected chairman of the business meeting. Reports were heard from every organization of the church and progress was shown along every line. Miss O. E. Kyle was re-elected treasurer of the church for the ensuing year.

Three elders were elected for three years: Dr. W. A. Galloway, to succeed himself; Mr. Henry Slagle and Mr. George Kaiser, succeeding Mr. O. M. Whittington and Mr. D. B. Watt. Five Deacons were elected three for the regular term of three years: Mr. James Wilson, III, and Mr. Frank McClellan, succeeding themselves. Mr. George P. Tiffany, succeeding Mr. A. V. Perrill. Mr. John McClain was elected to the unexpired term of Mr. George Kaiser, elected elder. Mr. F. L. Smith to the unexpired term of Mr. L. M. Allison, resigned.

Thirty-one members were added to the church last year, making the membership at present 311. The Rev. W. H. Telford, pastor, opened the meeting with a devotional talk on Second Timothy, 2:15, "Study to show thyself approved unto God a workman that need not be ashamed." He took for his subject, "The Approval of God" and the idea was emphasized that Church Success or any other, had its final test in the approval of God. "We cannot be successful as a church unless we have God's leadership and work for his approval," he said. The text was suggested as a suitable motto for everyone and the church for the coming church year.

PLAYLET IS WORK OF EX-XENIA TEACHER

The little playlet that is to be presented Thursday evening at the Jean B. Edwell Auditorium of Central High School in the annual "Know Your Schools" program by the pupils of the first, second and third grades of McKinley School is a project of the pupils of Miss Winifred Savage, Xenia, teacher of the first grade in an East Cleveland school.

The plot is original, having been conceived by the pupils of the first grade and worked out under the direction of Miss Savage. The title, "Grandmother's Garden," a May Day story was also selected by the pupils and is of a quaint nature. Elves, fairies, grasshoppers, bees, flowers, caterpillars and other inhabitants of gardens will be represented in the playlet. The fact that Miss Savage is a former teacher in the first grade of Spring Hill School this city adds to the interest that will be manifested in its presentation.

The only reason why it has not been widely used was its very disagreeable taste. But this has now been entirely overcome by putting it up in tasteless capsules under the name of Red Mill Hazlett Oil. You will be amazed how quickly it banishes your distressing symptoms and you feel like a new person. Costs only 50 cents and sold under an absolute money-back guarantee. YOUTH

Young Hal Donahey, erring son of the chief executive of the state, seems to have gotten himself into another mess.

The youngster is only seventeen years of age, and a boy of this age who becomes involved in an affair of this nature must suffer a blight that will mar his chances for future happiness.

This condition is enhanced by the fact that he is the Governor's son and for that reason earns considerable more publicity than would be accorded another chap in similar circumstances. Young Donahey and his father seem to have agreed that Hal is a victim of the temptations of owning his own automobile.

The boy is also apparently a victim of the present jazz age but if the scars of his present escapade can be healed, the whole affair may have a scourging effect on him during the character-building age.

INVESTMENTS

The department of commerce reports it is launching an investigation of reports that many mid-west farmers have been mulcted in South American land swindles.

Many are said to have sold their farms to raise funds to purchase acreage in South America of so-called extreme fertility but of actual doubtful existence.

This is an indication that many people do not take advantage of the friendly service of their own banker. Greene County banks are prepared to give advice as to the investments. Certainly they would not have advised that this money be tossed to the winds because of the smooth words of an unscrupulous salesman who would have kept his South American land if it was as promising an investment as he pictured it.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

April 8, 1925.

To the Editor:—When I plead for the Armenian children at Easter time, I ask myself what excuse can anyone have for refusing help in this case. The only one I have yet met is this: "We don't like the Armenians."

But if you were to travel about the world and realize how intensely we are disliked in some parts of the world, your hair would stand on end. Is everyone who is disliked to die? If so, we shall be among the first, I assure you.

It is true that the Armenian race is a very troublesome one. It is always being massacred! It is always in trouble. For 4,000 years the Near East has been the battleground of nations. No other portion of the world's surface has been so drenched with human blood. Millions of lives and billions in property have been sacrificed. Armies and navies have fallen. They have brought only desolation and ruin. They have not enriched life. Where there was hatred they have engendered more hatred. Yet there will be no permanent peace until the Near East question is solved.

In the Near East today there is a latent and new force that will prove mightier than all the armies of the world—little children, about a hundred thousand of them, fatherless, motherless, homeless, penniless, but none the less potential leaders of a new Near East. Let us do for them, and for the future of the world, that pitiful little service which at present seems to be all we can do—give our help to those who are trying to collect the scattered families and provide food and clothing for a hundred thousand orphans.

We do not know how far a few loaves and fishes can be made to go. Here is no gigantic, unmanageable problem, like Russia. It is a handful of people for whom I plead, and who knows how far the help we send may go? Here are people needing only a little help to make good. Shall we help them? We shall all be happier at Easter if we do.

THE FRIEND FROM HOME

Oh, whether it be Cairo or Paris or in Rome, There's nothing quite so fair to see as a friend you've known at home;

A friend who knows your first name and all your people, too, Will set your pulses beating as nothing else can do.

If you have ever wandered a thousand miles away, You've felt that bitter hunger which grips you night and day, You're overfed on grandeur and starved for simpler things, You're ready for the gladness a familiar brings.

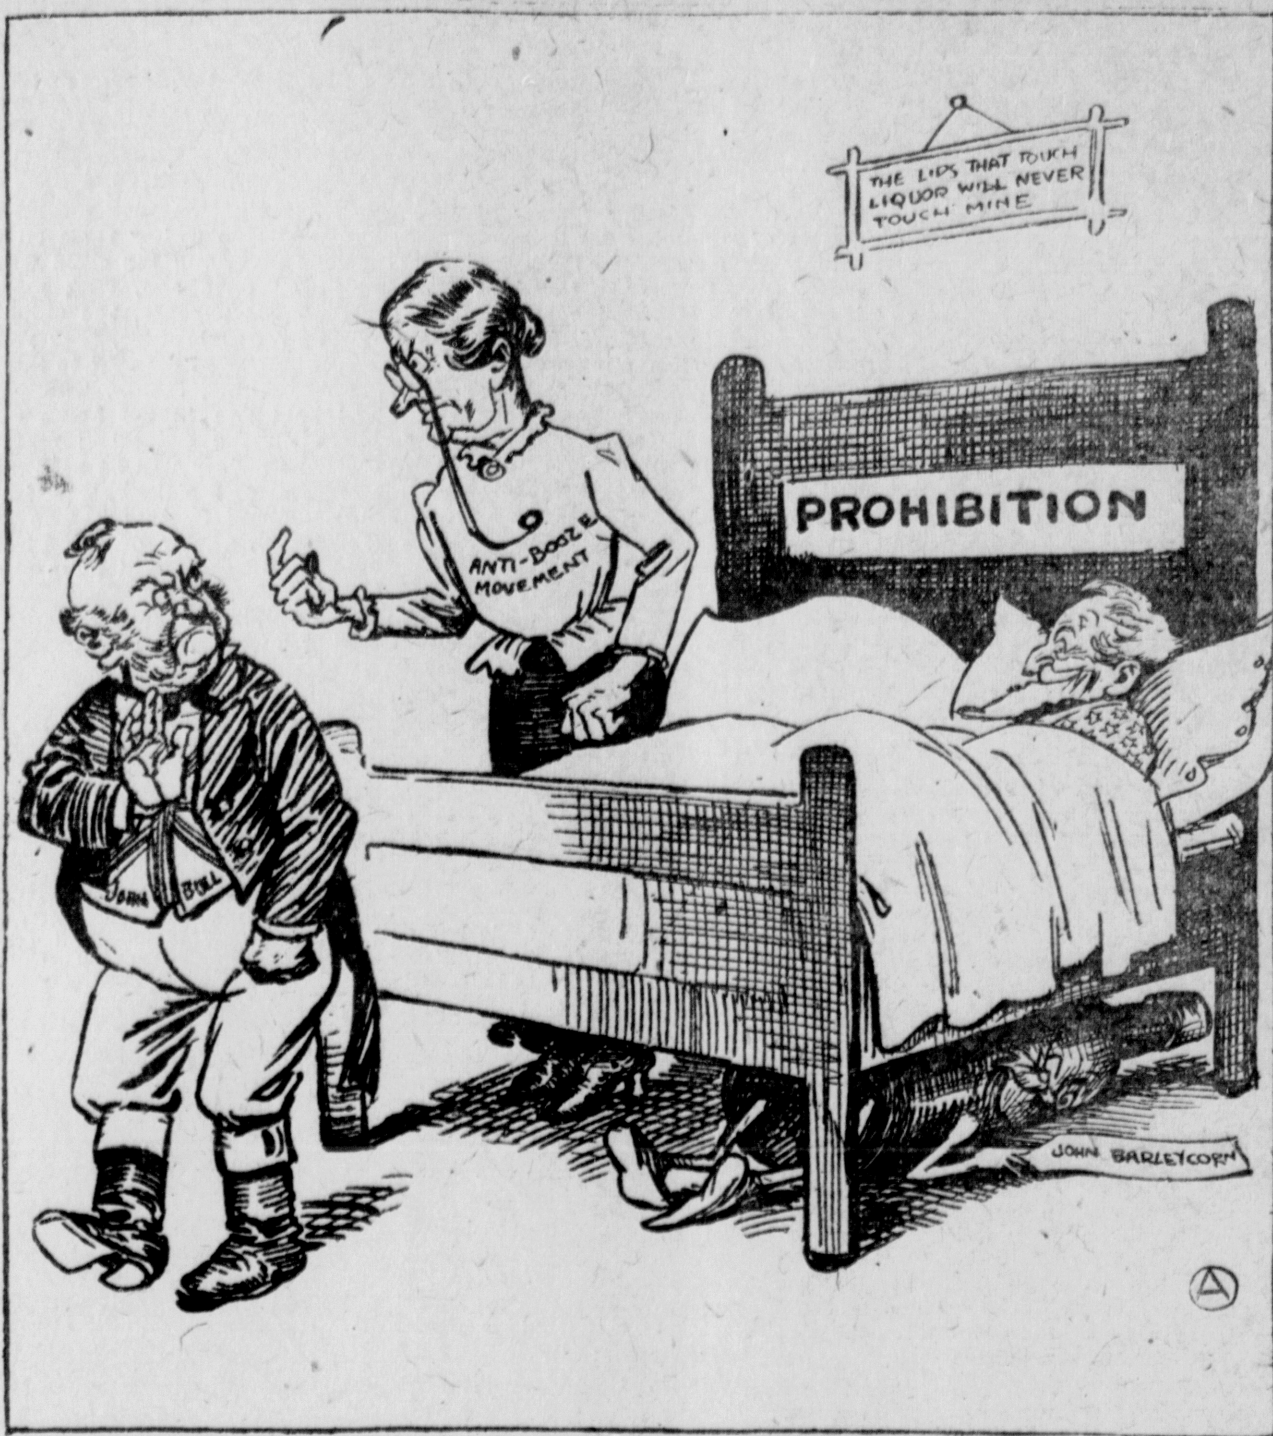

When friends are ever near you, you greet them day by day, And seldom think about them, but when you go away

To walk the streets with strangers your blood will faster race To see among the people one old familiar face.

'Tis not the snow-capped mountains, 'Tis not the ocean's blue, 'Tis not the tropic palm trees the moon comes silencing through

That holds earth's richest beauty—you'll learn it when you roam—The traveler's greatest moment is to meet a friend from home.

WEAK, RUN-DOWN NERVOUS, DIZZY

Mrs. Lee Suffered From All These Troubles, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well

Terre Haute, Indiana.—"I was weak and run-down and in such a nervous condition that I could hardly do my work. I was tired all the time and dizzy, had no appetite and could not sleep. I tried different medicines for a year but they did not help me. Then my husband saw the ad. for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers and had me take it. I regained my strength and never felt better in my life. It completely restored me to health. I had practically no suffering when my baby boy was born and he is very strong and healthy. I know that the Vegetable Compound is the best medicine a woman can take before and after childbirth for health and strength. I would be willing to answer letters from women asking about the Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. Wm. J. Lee, Route E, Box 648, Terre Haute, Indiana.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a dependable medicine for all these troubles.

What Pretty Girl Did for Sick Stomach

Miss E. Rich of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I don't know what the cause was, but every few days my stomach would feel all bloated up with gas, my appetite was poor and I felt sick to my stomach—to say nothing of headaches."

"I never thought of using Carter's Liver Pills until nothing seemed to help. After using Carter's I felt relieved at once—and now as soon as my stomach 'talks' back I answer with Carter's and have the last word."

Recommended and for sale by all drug stores. 25c.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 15c and 30c.

Today's Talks

RIPENESS

The form and substance of a man stands, sits, sleeps, walks around, dreams, gestures now and then—but mysterious indefinable man himself keeps his secret, and in silence philosophizes on the changes, movements, and questionings of human life.

It is not well to tap any newly-met mind too far else that subtlety of thought or desire for expression that opens so often at new opportunities or new meetings, might suddenly close its doors and ward off a flow of richness that on ripe occasions might prove a cool spring to the parched throat of the weary traveler.

The fact is that we as individuals and operators in the stuff of eternity are all the time ripening, or else we live as mere shaping themselves into some sort of dross over which the tramp of feet and busy brain may pass.

The field of flowing gold as the wind fondles the ripened efforts of the grain, is a picture of the effort of life the soil, the seed, the green sprout, the tall grain, the flowering of the ripe gift of the heart of the grain. Then the harvest and endless service—like the influence of a man's life after his material body has been translated into dust.

How many of our great men and women ripen only after their period of strife and stress has ended.

Yet, isn't this the natural way? The stalk withers after its bloom. But not until that bloom has left beauty and loveliness to perfume all memory of its day upon earth.

Beside me as I write is a special book which I have greatly learned to love. I think of the years of struggle on the part of him who placed in those pages the outpourings of his heart and his lonely spirit.

When the book was published it sold to but a very few fine, appreciative minds. Then the author fell asleep—tired, worn out. Today after edition in a score of different bindings finds ready sale to great multitudes of readers. I think of the work of this writer as all of ripeness.

I think of the soul of that rare spirit as journeying upon the waves of eternity!

EXPECT DAMAGE CASE WILL BE GIVEN JURY LATE ON THURSDAY

The $5,100 damage case of Mildred Dickerson, former stenographer at Wilbur Wright Field, against the Village of Osborn and the Miami Conservancy District being heard in Common Pleas Court was scheduled to go to the jury late Thursday afternoon.

The defense rested its case at the close of the Thursday morning session and attorneys for the plaintiff called but one witness in rebuttal. Attorney J. A. Finley opened the argument to the jury in the afternoon when the court re-convened, followed by counsel for the defense.

The verdict may hinge on medical testimony given by Indianapolis doctors and local physicians. Testimony given by Dr. N. D. Woodward, of Indianapolis, private physician of the Dickerson family, lecturer, and authority on anatomy, tended to substantiate allegations of the plaintiff that she had received abdominal and side injuries when she stepped into a hole in a street in Osborn in 1920.

In refutation of this testimony, defense attorneys called Dr. R. H. Grube and Dr. P. D. Espey, Xenia physicians, who gave their opinion after a physical examination of the plaintiff that her condition had been sub-normal since birth, that she was suffering from "suggestion neurosis," in medical language or extreme nervousness, which magnified her injuries, made her susceptible to outward suggestions, caused insomnia, loss of appetite and headaches.

Dr. W. H. Finley, Xenia physician, was called as the only rebuttal witness by plaintiff attorneys, and upheld the plaintiff's claims upon which the suit is based.

Mildred Dickerson submitted to a medical examination Wednesday afternoon by Dr. R. H. Grube, Dr. P. D. Espey and Dr. W. H. Finley, upon which their testimony Thursday morning was based.

Harry Frahn, mayor of Osborn, was placed on the witness stand Wednesday afternoon by defense counsel, and testified he had jurisdiction over village property, but that he was not informed of an uncovered hole in the sidewalk, although he knew of its existence and had previously boarded the opening.

Marshall W. A. Schneider, of Osborn, testified he had accidentally stepped into the hole, but was not injured on the occasion.

The plaintiff maintains she did not suffer from her accident until later but that afterward she discovered she had been hurt internally.

CLAIM IS UPHELD AGAINST COMPANY

A Federal Court decision against the Springfield Railway and Power Company, in a $5,873.24 claim filed by the Miami Conservancy District, Dayton, was issued by U. S. Judge Smith Hickenlooper at Cincinnati, Wednesday.

The claim was filed in 1921 after the road was dismantled and a bridge taken out over the Miami River near Troy, O. The Conservancy District held the defunct railroad liable for the assessment arising from the widening of the river. The company receivers asked release from the conservancy assessment on the grounds that the company was not in operation.

The federal court decision marked a new stride in the final closing of the defunct company's books. Final bankruptcy settlement is now held up pending the settlement of the affairs of the Springfield National Bank.

JAMESTOWN JAMESTOWN FRIENDS CHURCH

Bertha E. Day, Pastor.

Services next Sunday, 10:30 a.m. This will be a special Easter service. There will be on display a hand painted resurrection scene 15x22 feet. As one glances at this they behold Joseph's new tomb—the tints of the early morning in the sky and the three crosses in the distance. In the midst of the service the scene changes—the stone is rolled away and the angel appears to announce the risen Christ. The night service will be held at 7:30, when electric lights will be used to bring out the beauty of the painting. Mr. H. C. Flaker is the artist. There will be special music in both services.

The public is invited to come to the little church with the big welcome.

Speaks to Mothers

MRS. MILDRED HOLDEN

Portsmouth,—"Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was a great help to me during expectancy. I was weak and nervous, could not sleep or get any rest at night and my back hurt me all the time. I was as miserable as could be but after taking a few bottles of the 'Prescription' I felt well and strong. My nerves were good and I did not have any more trouble, could sleep and rest well at night. Motherhood caused the least discomfort I ever experienced and my strength held up good afterwards. 'Favorite Prescription' is a wonderful help to women."—Mrs. Mildred Holden, 1120 Chillicothe St.

LOCAL MINISTER TO ADDRESS MEETING

The Rev. William H. Tilford, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, this city, who has been moderator of the Dayton Presbytery for the last six months, will preach the opening sermon of the Spring meeting of Dayton Presbytery at Troy, O., Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

This closes the Rev. Mr. Tilford's term of office and his successor is elected and immediately takes over the work for another six months. Dr. A. C. Messenger is the representative of the local church at this meeting. The sessions will last two days.

Representative will be elected at this meeting to attend the Summer meeting of the Synod of Ohio and also the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A., which meets in Columbus, O., in May of this year.

COUNTRY CLUB WILL HOLD ELECTION AT MEETING APRIL 17

Stockholders, directors and members of the Xenia Country Club will hold their annual meeting at the club house Friday night, April 17, to elect officers and directors for the ensuing year. The financial statement of the past year will be presented at the meeting, by the secretary.

The meeting is of importance to all members, and all are urged to attend. Whether the local golf club will become a member of the Dayton District Golf Association, will be decided by the new board of directors, it was announced.

It is however, considered highly probable that Xenia will become a member of the association which consists of a majority of the clubs of the Miami Valley, banded together into an organization for friendly competition and association on the golf links.

A number of the local "bugs" are taking advantage of the ideal golf weather to get some spring practice, and several good scores are being reported for the nine holes. The fairways have been given their first rolling, and with a good stand of grass, the links never looked in better shape for this time of year.

The greens have not yet been opened to members but are rapidly being conditioned for the date of the formal opening which will be set by the new board of directors and officers.

RADIO PLANE HEARD BY LISTENERS HERE

Motor trouble developed at the close of the forty-five minute radio program broadcast from an airplane flying from Wilbur Wright Field, Dayton, Wednesday night and brought to a close the broadcasting experiment from a plane in flight after dark.

The trouble forced Major H.V. Kneer, commanding the eighty-eighth observation squadron and Lieutenant Malcolm Stewart, radio operator, to land, which was done without mishap.

The radio program, however, was considered a success and was heard by Xenia "listeners-in". It was the first time that the feat of broadcasting had been accomplished at night from a plane and marks another long step forward in mechanical manipulation.

The transmitting plant, installed in a DeHavilland plane, thoroughly equipped for night flying, with searchlights on the wings, parachute flares and signal lights, was taken up to a height of 5,000 feet. A phonograph furnished the music for the entertainment and there were talks.

DON'T DRUG YOURSELF IN THE SPRINGTIME

"The Safest Spring Tonic Is

A great many people really need a tonic in the spring time. They should take a real tonic

by both Major Kneer and Lieutenant Stewart.

The test was on a wave length of 450 meters, calculated to carry 600 miles at night and 20 miles during the day.

PAST CHANCELLORS WILL MEET TUESDAY

The next meeting of the Past Chancellors' Association of Greene County will be held at Cyclone Lodge, No. 548, K. of P. Jamestown, O., Tuesday evening, April 14. The meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock.

Hammond, associate director of investigation of the society will touch on the problems of this phase of its work in a later address.

A picnic luncheon in the historic Antioch Glen, near the yellow spring, is planned for the delegates, as the conference will last from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. Antioch's president, Arthur E. Morgan, and Dean Philip C. Nash, also of Antioch College, who was recently elected vice-president of the Ohio Association of Presidents and Deans, will give addresses of welcome. QUIT GETTING UP NIGHTS

C. N. Shuman, Republic, Ohio, says: "Before taking Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) I had to get up six or seven times each night. Now I do not get up at all. You may use my name if it would benefit anyone with bladder trouble." Be careful not to take drugs that check the action of the bladder. You may have to continue its use. Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) increases the action during the day. It cleanses the bladder as Epsom salts do the bowels driving out foreign matter, neutralizing excess acids, thereby relieving the irritation which causes "Getting Up Nights." Modish Mitzi—Suspender Skirt Inspired by American Overall? By JAY V. JAY

Here is Mitzi on her way to the shops (Notice the French hand blocked handkerchief she knots under her ear.) She is thinking of some of the newer suspender skirt styles...maybe she will buy one. What reminded her of suspender skirts? Why the man in overalls who is so diligently watering the street.

The suspender skirt styles are far removed from this all American working garment you will admit. A new suspender skirt style is the long waisted effect with finely pleated skirt. A blouse with many colored embroidery is worn with the skirt. "Nice," says Mitzi, "I'll take it." And she does.

Adelaide, Polly and Mitzi, all three here show the influence that the suspender fashions have wrought in the everyday life. Adelaide wears a suspender skirt with the inverted pleat in front. The blouse is of a dainty Dresden printed French voile. Polly wears a jumper dress that has two strap effects over the shoulder running through the loops in the top piece of the dress. Mitzi is dressed in a high back suspended skirt. The blouse she has on is smocked around the neck and at the top of the sleeve.

STORY OF ACCUSER OF D. C. STEPHENSON IS TOLD BY MOTHER OF GIRL AT HER BEDSIDE

BY SONIA LEE

Indianapolis, Ind., April 9.—The story of Madge Oberholzer, alleged victim of a man's desire, was told here today at the bedside where the unconscious girl lies dying from slow poison which has been seeping through her veins since she sought death as a way out in Hammond, Indiana, twenty-three days ago.

It was told by a mother who watches and waits, hoping against hope, for the daughter whose doom she has heard from the lips of attending physicians—physicians who have said:

"She cannot live."

The mother, Mathilda Jane Oberholzer, sketches the details of her daughter's leaving home, how she went to attend a "party" at the home of D. C. Stephenson, former Ku Klux Klan leader, and political power in Indiana, who is under indictment for the alleged attack on the girl. And she interrupts her tale, which grows bitter at times, to lay a cool hand on the feverish brow of the girl lying so fretfully beside her.

"It was on a Sunday," the mother says. "Madge went to Stephenson's about nine o'clock after he had called her on the telephone twice during the day and had left a number when he failed to find her in."

The girl failed to return and the mother became anxious. She had never stayed away before. The father was ill and the mother feared to share her worries and anxieties. She called Asa Smith, a young attorney, who tried to call her and finally came a "telegram" from Hammond: "Driving through to Chicago. Be home on night train—Madge," it read.

But Madge was not on the train. She was away all that night while the mother made frantic efforts to locate her and the next day, strange men brought her back, unconscious, while the mother was out, mumbled something about "an accident at Muncie," and left.

Since then the girl has had but a few moments of consciousness, according to the mother. She has been able to tell brokenly of the terrible happenings of those days when she was absent. The mother breaks her story to listen to a plaintive cry.

"Mother, mother, dearie," comes faintly from the bed. And the mother in answer, gives caresses with her hand and eyes.

"My daughter told me," she begins again, "before she became unconscious eleven days ago, that just as soon as she got to Stephenson's, she knew she was trapped. She said that she had something to drink and then—I'm not quite clear here—but they were going to take her to Chicago. She thought they were driving through and she pleaded to go home for a hat as an excuse. But they took her right along. When they got to town they bundled her into a compartment and Shorty took the car, presumably to drive through."

"See," the woman pulls back the girl's nightgown, displays the three bruises. "She was a mass of black and blue spots when she was first brought back."

"When they got to Hammond they went to a hotel. There were two rooms and Shorty met them with the car later on. There was more drinking, she told me. Stephenson stood over her while she wrote out the telegram I received and it was then sent to the telegraph office by messenger. One of the men gave her some money to buy a hat and she went out and bought the poison and she took it when she came back to the hotel. They laughed at her when she said she had taken poison. They tried to make her say that she did not. But then she got sick and she went to the telephone to call me but she was so weak she couldn't stand up.

"If she had only let me know. Nothing would have stood in my way and she would have received medical attention immediately. She has so little chance now—even after the blood Marshall, her brother has given her. I wanted to offer mine but his was better."

In the meantime, Stephenson answers the charges with the counter charges of frame-up on the part of his enemies in the Klan. He claims that this is merely another desperate effort to eliminate him from Indianapolis and Klan affairs.

But "fals" to the idle chatter is written by Dr. Kingsbury, the attending physician with the statement: "The girl cannot live. If she should it would upset all medical precedent. The waste content of her blood is more than six times that of normal. There has been no change in her condition in the last few days but she will not live."

BISHOP REESE WILL NOT CONDUCT EASTER SERVICES IN XENIA

Word was received Tuesday from Columbus, that due to an unavoidable and unforeseen change in program, Bishop Theodore Irving Reese, will be unable to officiate at the Easter service of Christ Episcopal Church, this city.

In his stead, the Rev. Maurice Clarke, secretary of religious education for the Episcopal diocese of Southern Ohio will take charge of the services.

Bishop Reese found it necessary to be present at St. Paul's Cathedral, Cincinnati, next Sunday morning, instead of the evening, as had been originally scheduled. For this reason, he cannot come to Xenia.

The Rev. Mr. Clarke, has made a splendid record in religious education circles. Before taking up his present duties he was rector of St. Peter's Church, Delaware. At present, he is also in charge of the work of young people's societies in Southern Ohio.

New Treatment For Varicose Veins and Ulcers

Swollen veins are dangerous and often burst. Sufferers are advised to get a two-ounce, original bottle of Emerald Oil (full strength), at Sohn's Drug Store and Sayre and Hemphill's and start to reduce the veins and banches at once.

Physicians recommend Emerald Oil; it is used in hospital practice and a small bottle will last a long time, because it is very concentrated and a little goes a long way. Apply night and morning with a soft brush as directed until the swelling is reduced to normal.

So marvelously powerful is Emerald Oil that swollen glands and even goitre disappear when used steadily. adv.

SLAYER POMEROY IS SEEKING FREEDOM

Boston, April 4.—Jesse H. Pomeroy, famous life-term prisoner, is making another try for freedom.

After serving forty-nine years in State prison here, entering the prison as a boy of sixteen, the now gray-haired man has appealed to Governor Fuller for executive clemency.

Two score of business and professional men of Massachusetts are backing Pomeroy in his fight for liberty. These men have petitioned the Governor for a public hearing. If the hearing is granted it is planned to have Pomeroy appear, under guard, and tell his story in person.

Although in solitary confinement for forty-one of his forty-nine years, Pomeroy is vigorous and healthy. He has kept in touch with affairs in the outside world and has done much writing.

Pomeroy was convicted of murdering a boy of five in 1874 when he was fourteen years old. He also confessed to playing a girl, whose ashes were dug from the cellar of the Pomeroy home in South Boston.

Sohn's Drug Store's Great Offer To Chronic Rheumatic Sufferers

Money Back If Allenru Fails To Do You More Good Than Anything You Ever Used

this because I was crippled for years and many times was unable to work, and Allenru made a well, robust, healthy man of me.

"I know because since I cured myself, hundreds have taken Allenru and speedily rid themselves of this agonizing disease."

Allenru is no laggard; it starts right in at once; it gets into the blood, searches out the poisonous uric acid deposit and in two days starts to drive the concentrated impurities that cause rheumatism, out of the body through the natural channels.

It's marvelous how quickly it acts. Blessed relief often comes in two days—even in cases where the suffering has been most painful all traces have disappeared in a few days.

James H. Allen, of 26 Forbes St., Rochester, N. Y., the discoverer of Allenru, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenru decisively conquers this worst of all diseases.

With this understanding he has instructed Sohn's Drug Store and druggists everywhere to guarantee it in every instance.—Adv.

Yes, perfect every time and it keeps fresh for days for now I use only the new Kitchen-tested Cake Flour!

Don't say you cannot make a cake. It is easy. If you tried and failed—probably your flour was to blame. It takes a special kind of fine, plump wheat—with a tender, pliable gluten—to make good cake flour.

But even the best flour may play tricks—unless it is Kitchen-tested. That is why in our big kitchens we test every single batch of the new Gold Medal Cake Flour. That is why every time—you can make such remarkably good cake.

My staff and I bake cakes continuously. From every batch of Gold Medal Cake Flour made. Every cake we make must pass 3 tests. It must be perfect—light, tender, delicious. Every cake must be as good as the one before. Every cake must keep its original freshness 3 whole days.

This new cake flour, madam, Kitchen-tested—to give you a perfect cake every time—one that stays fresh 3 whole days. Try it for your own delight. Just phone your grocer for a package now.

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

ONE-CENT STAMP TO DIE APRIL 14 UNDER NEW ACT OF CONGRESS

The one-cent stamp, dear to the hearts of summer tourists and mail-order houses will die at midnight, April 14 under a death order issued by Congress and signed by President Coolidge.

After that date the gentleman with the green complexion will be only a memory in postal circles. A stamp can take a lot of lickings and still not have to lay off from work, but when Coolidge signed the death warrant for the penny portrait of Franklin, he sent the little fellow to his grave.

The stamp, one of the oldest in circulation, has been used for years in the unimportant business of transferring across the country the rather hackneyed expression, "wish you were here." Its demise came with the decision of Congress to raise rates on this class of postage to help pay the postal employees salary increase bill. The penny stamp died that the mailmen may live and they will carry their routes after April 14 over his canceled body.

The one-cent stamp is survived by the old favorite, the pink-complexioned two-cent stamp and a new, trick one and one-half cent stamp which will come into common usage April 15. The new stamp will take care of the cent and one-half rate on third class postage, and will be the first fractional stamp in the history of the department.

A portrait of the late President Warren G. Harding will decorate the new stamp. The picture will be the same used on the memorial stamp issued after his death. Postmaster C. S. Frazer is expecting a supply of the new stamps soon.

CAMP KNOX FILM TO BE IN XENIA MAY 19

County Chairman H. D. Smith, in charge of the enrollment campaign in Greene County for the Citizens' Military Training Camp, at Camp Knox, Ky., for this summer, announced Wednesday that he had received word that the motion pictures depicting training activities at the camp, would be sent to Xenia, May 19.

Chairman Smith said the film would be shown at the local theaters when arrangements were completed. The film has been assigned to this district, but Xenia comes last on the list of about eight cities to which the picture will be sent.

Greene County's campaign for applicants is being continued despite the fact that the allotted quota has been over-subscribed by two applicants. Future candidates will be entered at headquarters as alternates.

YESTERDAY'S JUNIOR PUZZLE ANSWER

BRINGING UP FATHER

By GEORGE McMANUS

MICHAEL'S MARRIAGE

By MICHAEL

CHAPTER XI.

Michael pulled the telephone toward him, and put the receiver to his ear as he scanned a column of figures.

"Central 4305," he recited. "No, no! Central four-three-five. Yes, that's it." He forgot the column of figures, as he recalled, with a wry face, Helen Blanton.

"Metropolitan Florist Shop? This is Michael Menlow. I wish to order some flowers." "Just a moment, Mr. Benbow." "Menlow, you idiot," Michael thought. "Wonder if Helen is preserving one of my rose buds pressed between the leaves of a book?" He smiled at the idea.

"This is Michael Menlow," he recited to the florist again. "I want you to send two dozen roses—no, wait, one dozen roses, the largest you have, to Miss Lilah Pharely. No, not Barley. P-h-a-r-l-e-y." He gave the address, and added the injunction: "Please get them to her early this afternoon."

He turned back to his work with satisfaction. Work was easy this morning. The smallest details interested him. By noon he had accomplished as much as he usually did in an entire day. As he gazed at the pile of completed letters and the otherwise clean desk, he got an idea. When the letters had been signed, he rang for Inglesby.

"I have an important engagement for the afternoon, Ing. I won't be back."

After taking more than usual care in refreshing himself in the washroom, he walked briskly toward his customary lunching place, but on its threshold he changed his mind and hailed a taxi.

The cab took him to the Studio Arts building. He consulted a directory in the lobby, and then ventured into the ante-room of the studio occupied by Monsieur and Madame Bestova, Ballroom Dancing.

"I want to brush up on the latest steps," Michael confided to Monsieur Bestova, born neither in Russia nor in France, but in Plainfield, N. J., where he was known as Al Johnson. "I want private lessons. Could you give me the whole afternoon?"

Monsieur Bestova, though hesitant at first, could. He summoned Madame Bestova as partner for Michael.

"I will play, and Madame will point out to you those little intimate intricacies of the dance which are the difference between the correct, ballroom dancer and the uh—" Monsieur Bestova was at loss for a term to describe the class of dancers that he meant. He hesitated a moment, then quickly sat down at the piano and began a waltz. Madame Bestova was blonde with eyes disposed to argue coyly, and Monsieur Bestova kept a watchful eye upon the couple.

They kept it up until five o'clock, when Michael asked Madame, ignoring Monsieur: "Have I improved?"

"Most wonderfully," she ventured, without so much as a glance at the jealous Monsieur.

"Should I come again?"

"You have achieved those intricacies which are the difference between the correct, ballroom dancer, and the uh—" Monsieur interposed, glancing at Madame pointedly.

Michael, innocent of all that was going on between his two terpsichorean mentors, drew out his purse. "And the fee?"

M. Bestova of Moscow, Paris and Plainfield, N. J., eyed the bill-fold.

"I believe twenty-five dollars will be satisfactory."

Michael bowed formally to Madame as he left.

"Now," he said to himself, as he drew on his gloves, and started feel more at ease on the dance the motor of his automobile, "I'll floor. Wonder what Lilah thought of me last night? I was horribly clumsy." He decided to ask her to go to the weekly tea-dansant at the country club on Saturday afternoon.

He noticed the window of a clothing store as he drove by. He stopped and walked to it. Without inquiring the price, he bought two pairs of white flannel trousers, and a dark coat to go with them, and accompanied these purchases with the acquirement of sport shoes. He had never felt the need of such apparel before.

When he got home he sought out Sally Warbe. "Sally, do you suppose I could have a dinner party here sometime soon? I'll expect you to get some extra help, of course. We'll want to get a butler—I know a good one, and I can have a caterer supply the food. I'll want some music—a violinist or somebody—too, but, of course, you won't attend to that."

The housekeeper looked at him doubtfully. "Do you think it would be proper, Mr. Michael, so soon after your mother's death?"

A shadow settled on Michael's brow. He had forgotten about his mother's death. He had not been to her grave since the funeral. What would she think of him if she knew? And what had Lilah thought of him for going out and being so gay so soon after Mrs. Menlow's passing?

"I suppose you're right, Sally. I must confess, ashamed, that I had not thought of it in that light."

Sally did not comment upon the matter further, but confided that "Mr. Thurber telephoned. He said he tried to get you at the office this afternoon, but couldn't. He says if you're going to be at home this evening he wants to see you, and to call him up and let him know."

Thurber was the family lawyer. He probably had something to take up about the will. "All right, Sally," Michael sat down weakly, his mind upon his mother. (To be continued.)
